April 28, 2019 2nd Sunday of Easter

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be grateful and generous. Look for opportunities to share His peace, not only within our local parish boundaries, but outside of them as well. In giving, we receive the peace of Jesus Christ.

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Conditions in northern Alaska may be harsh, but the people who live there have a rich culture and a vibrant faith. The Diocese of Fairbanks serves several groups of Alaska Native people, including the Yup'ik, the Cup'ik, the Iñupiat, and the Athabascans. Serving these communities in an often cold and inhospitable environment requires priests and religious to board small aircraft, risk seasonal storms, and land on snowy remote runways. Many communities go weeks without a priest visiting, and only half have deacons. But your support to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA) makes possible the Native Ministry Training Program. The only preparatory program of its kind within hundreds of miles, it has remained a crucial method for catechetical outreach since its inception in 1990. Sr. Ellen Callaghan directs the program and acts as a modern day "flying nun." She flies, generally by bush planes, to reach 24 isolated Yup'ik villages to train catechists, eucharistic ministers, and other lay leaders who live in the villages. Once trained, these leaders help parents prepare their children for the sacraments, lead Sunday services, pray with the sick and dying, and lead funeral services. Because of your generosity, these lay ministers serve their communities with grit and grace, taking responsibility for faith formation in their villages. By supporting the CHMA, you help hundreds of native people keep the Church thriving and full of life.

Support the CHMA, and strengthen the Church at home. For more information about the Catholic Home Missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

Find out the basics.

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Blessed John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

The Lord expressed His will with regard to this feast in His very first revelation to St. Faustina. The most comprehensive revelation can be found in her Diary entry 699:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy.

In all, St. Faustina recorded 14 revelations from Jesus concerning His desire for this feast.

Nevertheless, Divine Mercy Sunday is NOT a feast based solely on St. Faustina's revelations. Indeed, it is not primarily about St. Faustina — nor is it altogether a new feast. The Second Sunday of Easter was already a solemnity as the Octave Day of Easter. The title "Divine Mercy Sunday" does, however, highlight the meaning of the day.
