March 1, 2020
1st Sunday of Lent

"It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve." (Matthew 4:10)

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things. Ask God how he is calling you to serve.

Black and Indian Mission

The second collection this week is for the Black and Indian Mission. Thank you for your donation!

Please Welcome Tarena

I need your help! My name is Tarena Ubel and I am working with NET (National Evangelization Teams) Ministries. I have worked with NET for four years as a missionary for two years and as a supervisor for teams for the other two. This year will be my last year serving with NET and I haven't gotten fully funded as of yet! I would love for you to consider helping me on my mission, even though it is close to the end (my contract ends in June) to help me reach my goal of $5,000! To donate please visit the website: www.netusa.org/donate and in the missionary category place my name! Thank you in advance for your prayers and your donation!

Tale of Two Adams: Reflects on the First Sunday of Lent

Readings:

Genesis 2:7–9; 3:1–7

Psalm 51:3–6; 12–14, 17

Romans 5:12–19

Matthew 4:1–11

In today's Liturgy, the destiny of the human race is told as the tale of two "types" of men—the first man, Adam, and the new Adam, Jesus (see 1 Corinthians 15:21–22; 45–59).

Paul's argument in the Epistle is built on a series of contrasts between "one" or "one person" and "the many" or "all." By one person's disobedience, sin and condemnation entered the world, and death came to reign over all. By the obedience of another one, grace abounded, all were justified, and life came to reign for all.

This is the drama that unfolds in today's First Reading and Gospel.

Formed from the clay of the ground and filled with the breath of God's own Spirit, Adam was a son of God (see Luke 3:38), created in His image (see Genesis 5:1–3). Crowned with glory, he was given dominion over the world and the protection of His angels (see Psalms 8:6–8; 91:11–13). He was made to worship God—to live not by bread alone but in obedience to every word that comes from the mouth of the Father.

Adam, however, put the Lord his God to the test. He gave in to the serpent's temptation, trying to seize for himself all that God had already promised him. But in His hour of temptation, Jesus prevailed where Adam failed—and drove the devil away.

Still, we sin after the pattern of Adam's transgression. Like Adam, we let sin in the door (see Genesis 4:7) when we entertain doubts about God's promises, when we forget to call on Him in our hours of temptation.

But the grace won for us by Christ's obedience means that sin is no longer our master.

As we begin this season of repentance, we can be confident in His compassion, that He will create in us a new heart (see Romans 5:5; Hebrews 8:10). As we do in today's Psalm, we can sing joyfully of our salvation, renewed in His presence.
