October 11, 2020
28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"My God will supply whatever you need..." - Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works

Religious Education

Reminder: NO Religious Education on October 14th

Religious Education for PreK-5th grade will begin on October 21st from (7-8pm)
We are still looking for one more teacher to help out. If you would like to volunteer as a teacher or aide, please contact Jennifer Rose at 701-741-0695.
If you signed up for your child to participate in the At Home Religious Education Program you will be able to pick up your first packet of supplies on the weekend of October 17 & 18th after mass in the back of the church. If you have not registered your child for religious education classes yet and would still like to send your child, please visit our website at stmaryswarroad.org and register today.

Religious Education Teachers and Volunteers:
Safe Environment Certification is necessary for every adult (age 18 or over) clergy, visiting clergy, employee, independent contractor, and volunteer in the Diocese of Crookston who has the potential for contact with children or vulnerable adults. Dear Parents,

Once again it is time to begin another year of religious education. In this strange year of pandemic, the program that we used last year seems especially well suited again this year. We will be meeting monthly as a community, with both children and adults participating. Each month, the families of younger children will receive a packet to bring home and go over with their children.

The format will be the same as last year, with grade 5 through adults meeting upstairs for a presentation on the topics of the month, while the 1st through 4th grades meet downstairs. We will be meeting on the following Wednesdays, from 6:30-7:30PM.

October 21st November 18th December 16th January 20th
February 24th March 17th April 21st May 19th

Thank you for your cooperation, and we pray that we have a year of faith building together.

~Deacon Jim Lukenbill

Dressing for the Feast: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Isaiah 25:6–10

Psalm 23:1–6

Philippians 4:12–14, 19–20

Matthew 22:1–14

Our Lord's parable in today's Gospel is again a fairly straightforward outline of salvation history.

God is the king (see Matthew 5:35), Jesus the bridegroom (see Matthew 9:15), the feast is the salvation and eternal life that Isaiah prophesies in today's First Reading. The Israelites are those first invited to the feast by God's servants, the prophets (see Isaiah 7:25). For refusing repeated invitations and even killing His prophets, Israel has been punished, its city conquered by foreign armies.

Now, Jesus makes clear, God is sending new servants, His apostles, to call not only Israelites, but all people—good and bad alike—to the feast of His kingdom. This is an image of the Church, which Jesus elsewhere compares to a field sown with both wheat and weeds, and a fishing net that catches good fish and bad (see Matthew 13:24–43, 47–50).

We have all been called to this great feast of love in the Church, where, as Isaiah foretold, the veil that once separated the nations from the covenants of Israel has been destroyed, where the dividing wall of enmity has been torn down by the blood of Christ (see Ephesians 2:11–14).

As we sing in today's Psalm, the Lord has led us to this feast, refreshing our souls in the waters of Baptism, spreading the table before us in the Eucharist. As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, in the glorious riches of Christ, we will find supplied whatever we need.

And in the rich food of His body, and the choice wine of His blood, we have a foretaste of the eternal banquet in the heavenly Jerusalem, when God will destroy death forever (see Hebrews 12:22–24).

But are we dressed for the feast, clothed in the garment of righteousness (see Revelation 19:8)? Not all who have been called will be chosen for eternal life, Jesus warns. Let us be sure that we're living in a manner worthy of the invitation we've received (see Ephesians 4:1).
