November 22, 2020 - Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." – Matthew 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient; when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's schedule.

Mass of Light.

Losing a child is one of the most difficult things that a Parent can endure. Whether your loss was recent or long ago, there is hope, healing, support, and love. On Monday, November 23rd at 6:30 pm St. Mary's will hold a special "Mass of Light for those who have experienced Miscarriage, Still Birth, Infant, and Child loss."

This Mass is a way to commemorate the lives of our children who died before or after birth. Couples, family members, friends and all parishioners are welcome to attend this Mass as we pray for our children and for those who love and mourn for them.

If you would like to have your child prayed for by name during the Mass, please call the parish office before Nov. 19th at (218) 386-1178 simply text Terrie Lynn at 218-386-2727 or email:

When the End Comes: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Solemnity of Christ the King

Readings:

Ezekiel 34:11–12, 15–17

Psalms 23:1–3, 5–6

1 Corinthians 15:20–26, 28

Matthew 25:31–46

The Church year ends today with a vision of the end of time. The scene in the Gospel is stark and resounds with Old Testament echoes.

The Son of Man is enthroned over all nations and peoples of every language (see Daniel 7:13–14). The nations have been gathered to see His glory and receive His judgment (see Isaiah 66:18; Zephaniah 3:8). The King is the divine shepherd Ezekiel foresees in today's First Reading, judging as a shepherd separates sheep from goats.

Each of us will be judged upon our performance of the simple works of mercy we hear in the Gospel today. These works, as Jesus explains today, are reflections or measures of our love for Him, our faithfulness to His commandment that we love God with all our might and our neighbor as ourselves (see Matthew 22:36–40).

Our faith is dead, lifeless, unless it is expressed in works of love (see James 2:20; Galatians 5:6). And we cannot say we truly love God, whom we cannot see, if we don't love our neighbor, whom we can (see 1 John 4:20).

The Lord is our shepherd, as we sing in today's Psalm. And we are to follow His lead, to imitate His example (see 1 Corinthians 1:11; Ephesians 5:1).

He healed our sickness (see Luke 6:19), freed us from the prison of sin and death (see Romans 8:2, 21), welcomed us who were once strangers to His covenant (see Ephesians 2:12, 19). He clothed us in Baptism (see Revelation 3:5; 2 Corinthians 5:3–4), and feeds us with the food and drink of His own body and blood.

At "the end," He will come again to hand over His kingdom to His Father, as Paul says in today's Epistle.

Let us strive to follow Him in right paths, that this kingdom might be our inheritance, that we might enter into the eternal rest promised for the people of God (see Hebrews 4:1, 9–11).
