Summary of Parish Pastoral Council

The council met June 15. Present were Fr. Andrew Obel, council members, Lynn Erickson, Lois Thiessen, Mary Marvin, Andrew Dignan, Nancy Ellenson and Bruce Beisel and guest presenter Terrie Lynn Dignan. A gift was purchased for Deacon Jim in honor of his 25th anniversary of his ordination. It will be given July 11. To reconnect with our parish community a survey will be done to be used as a resource for serving St. Mary's. At the bishop's request we are to have a "Reunite Committee" welcoming people back upon the lifting of mass attendance restriction. Enlisting and training of new Liturgical Ministers will be done in September or October. Livestream of mass will be discontinued July 1 since Sunday obligation is reinstated. We had a brief review of the RE program. Next meeting will be September 8.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" JOHN 6:9

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!

Religious Education news and updates can be found on the insert.

DOUGHNUT SUNDAY is here again. Please stop in Fellowship Hall after Mass Sunday to enjoy good fellowship and doughnuts.

St. Mary's Parish Survey

Some members of our parish came together to create a parish survey, with a purpose of reconnecting our parish members and to better serve all our parishioners.

Please take a few minutes out of your day to fill out the survey, we appreciate your time and value your responses. Thank you.

There will be a paper form of the survey distributed at church which you can hand in to those collecting them after mass, or you can place them in designated box in gathering space. If you would rather take the survey online, here is the link:

Bread Left Over: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

2 Kings 4:42–44

Psalm 145:10–11, 15–18

Ephesians 4:1–6

John 6:1–15

Today's liturgy brings together several strands of Old Testament expectation to reveal Jesus as Israel's promised Messiah and King, the Lord who comes to feed His people.

Notice the parallels between today's Gospel and First Reading. Both Elisha and Jesus face a crowd of hungry people with only a few "barley" loaves. We hear similar words about how impossible it will be to feed the crowd with so little. And in both the miraculous multiplication of bread satisfies the hungry and leaves food left over.

The Elisha story looks back to Moses, the prophet who fed God's people in the wilderness (see Exodus 16). Moses prophesied that God would send a prophet like him (see Deuteronomy 18:15–19). The crowd in today's Gospel, witnessing His miracle, identifies Jesus as that prophet.

The Gospel today again shows Jesus to be the Lord, the good shepherd, who makes His people lie down on green grass and spreads a table before them (see Psalm 23:1, 5).

The miraculous feeding is a sign that God has begun to fulfill His promise, which we sing of in today's Psalm—to give His people food in due season and satisfy their desire (see Psalm 81:17).

But Jesus points to the final fulfillment of that promise in the Eucharist. He does the same things He does at the Last Supper—He takes the loaves, pronounces a blessing of thanksgiving (literally, "eucharist"), and gives the bread to the people (see Matthew 26:26). Notice, too, that twelve baskets of bread are left over, one for each of the Apostles.

These are signs that should point us to the Eucharist—in which the Church founded on the Apostles continues to feed us with the living bread of His Body.

In this Eucharist, we are made one Body with the Lord, as we hear in today's Epistle. Let us resolve again, then, to live lives worthy of such a great calling
