14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'" EZEKIEL 2:2-3

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But, He doesn't leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God's call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.

St. Mary's

There will be a planning meeting in St. Mary's Fellowship Hall

Wednesday, July 7th at 7:00pm for anyone who is interested in helping plan our Summer Fun Camp for PreK-5th grade students. We will be looking for suggestions and creative activities along with finding volunteers to help lead and supervise groups during the camp. All middle school and high school students are encouraged to come and share their ideas and help in the planning. If you would like to help, but can't make the meeting please email or text Jennifer Rose at 701-741-0695 / jenniferkrose@live.com before July 7th to share your thoughts and ideas so they can be brought to the meeting. Thank you to all who continue to help and support our Religious Education students of the parish.

A Heartfelt Thank You!

To Father Andrew, the planning committee, and all who gave so much to make the anniversary celebration such a memorable day, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Your words of support and encouragement, as well as your gifts, are very much appreciated. We are blessed to be part of this wonderful faith community. These three parishes have been a blessing in our lives!

With our deep gratitude and prayers,
Deacon Jim and Bernie

In Reflection of Deacon Jim's Anniversary Celebration, we had a great time and all went very well. We had a nice gathering at church, with great music, reflections, and a few laughs. We served about 80 people. Had amazing help in preparing, serving and clean up after the meal. It felt so good to gather again and work together at Sacred Heart.

God Bless you
Fr. Andrew and the planning committee

Readings:

Ezekiel 2:2–5

Psalm 123:1–4

2 Corinthians 12:7–10

Mark 6:1–6

As we've walked with the Apostles in the Gospels in recent weeks, we've witnessed Jesus command the wind and sea, and order a little girl to arise from the dead.

But He seems to meet His match in His hometown of Nazareth. Today's Gospel is blunt: "He was not able to perform any mighty deed there."

Why not? Because of the people's lack of faith. They acknowledged the wisdom of His words, the power of His works. But they refused to recognize Him as a prophet come among them, a messenger sent by God.

All they could see was how much "this man" was like them—a carpenter, the son of their neighbor, Mary, with brothers and sisters.

Of course, Mary was ever-virgin and had no other children. The Gospel refers to Jesus' brothers as Paul refers to all Israelites as his brothers, the children of Abraham (see Romans 9:3, 7).

That's the point in today's Gospel, too. Like the prophet Ezekiel in today's First Reading, Jesus was sent by God to the rebellious house of Israel, where He found His own brothers and sisters obstinate of heart and in revolt against God.

The servant is not above the Master (see Matthew 10:24). As His disciples, we too face the mockery and contempt we hear of in today's Psalm. And isn't it often hardest to live our faith among those in our own families, those who think they really know us, who define us by the people we used to be—before we chose to walk with Jesus?

As Paul confides in today's Epistle, insults and hardships are God's way of teaching us to rely solely on His grace.

Jesus will work no mighty deeds in our lives unless we abandon ourselves to Him in faith. Blessed then are those who take no offense in Him (see Luke 7:23). Instead, we must look upon Him with the eyes of servants—knowing that the son of Mary is also the Lord enthroned in the heavens.
