“It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” (Mark 10:25)

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But, we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

Religious Education Updates & News found on insert

Parish survey results

Forty eight people took the survey, the majority of them were 60 and older and already volunteer at the church. Of those who took the survey, about half are interested in volunteering again next year.

Many placed Building Community as a number one priority our parish should focus on over the next year.

We did have a few comments, giving praise, gratitude and high fives to those who volunteer their time to doing music ministry. Way to go Musicians! A BIG THANK YOU!!!

Thank you to all who participated in the survey.

Happy Birthday

( Oct. 10th– Oct. 16th), goes out to:

St. Mary's, Sacred Heart, & St. Joseph's will be participating in a parish-wide survey, conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute! We need your help!

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed through an online link during the dates of October 3rd to 25th, it will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole.

Thank you for helping with this important project!

Paper versions are available in your parish office.

St. Mary's will have a few copies in the gathering space.

Thank you to those who have donated to the Perfect-fit Campaign or have pledged.

Mass intentions can be placed by touching base with Terrie Lynn in the office, stmarys2@mncabl.net or simply by writing them on a paper and mailing them to St. Mary's, P.O. box 33 Warroad.

Wisdom and Riches: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Wisdom 7:7–11

Psalm 90:12–17

Hebrews 4:12–13

Mark 10:17–30

The rich young man in today's Gospel wants to know what we all want to know—how to live in this life so that we might live forever in the world to come. He seeks what today's Psalm calls "wisdom of heart."

He learns that the wisdom he seeks is not a program of works to be performed or behaviors to be avoided. As Jesus tells him, observing the commandments is essential to walking the path of salvation—but it can only get us so far.

The Wisdom of God is not precepts, but a person—Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Wisdom whose Spirit was granted to Solomon in today's First Reading. Jesus is the Word of God spoken of in today's Epistle. And Jesus, as He reveals Himself to the rich man today, is God.

In Jesus we encounter Wisdom, the living and effective Word of God. As He does with the rich man today, He looks upon each of us with love. That look of love, that loving gaze, is a personal invitation—to give up everything to follow Him.

Nothing is concealed from His gaze, as we hear in the Epistle. In His fiery eyes, the thoughts of our hearts are exposed, and each of us must render an account of our lives (see Revelation 1:14).

We must have the attitude of Solomon, preferring Wisdom to all else, loving Him more than even life itself. This preference, this love, requires a leap of faith. We will be persecuted for this faith, Jesus tells His disciples today. But we must trust in His promise—that all good things will come to us in His company.

What, then, are the "many possessions" that keep us from giving ourselves totally to God? What are we clinging to—material things, comfort zones, relationships? What will it take for us to live fully for Christ's sake and the sake of the Gospel?

Let us pray for the wisdom to enter into the kingdom of God. With the Psalmist, let us ask Him, "Teach us."

Religious Education News

New Faith Formation Coordinator Needed: Jennifer Rose, who has been serving as our Faith Formation Coordinator stepped down due to sickness in her family and additional responsibilities in her other job. We thank her very much for the sacrifice she made to coordinate our Religious Education for the last two years. We are now in need of another person to coordinate this program for our parish. It is a part-time job of not more than 20 hours a week. The main responsibility of the Faith Formation Coordinator is to coordinate the faith formation of the young people of our parish from kindergarten through grade 12. He or she coordinates catechetical programs, which includes preparing the students for the sacraments of initiation so that our children can receive knowledge of the Catholic Faith. If you are interested in serving our parish and our young people in this role, please contact Fr. Andrew or the parish office as soon as possible.

Our Religious Education will begin on Wednesday, October 27th with opening Mass at 6pm for all grades (kindergarten through grade 12) and their families. After Mass, we shall meet the teachers, tour the classrooms, receive the program, and then enjoy refreshments and fun in the social hall.

Keep up to date with our parish news and events by following us on Facebook:

<https://www.facebook.com/WarroadCatholic/>

If you have not yet signed your child/children up for Religious Ed please do so online at our website:

<https://stmaryswarroad.org/2021-2022-re-registration>

Please do consider being a volunteer,

we wish to thank the many of you who have already come forth to help with our Religious Education program, but we are still in need of helpers to make this a successful year for our young parishioners.

We are looking for a few people to help walk the children over to the church after school on Wednesday's. Our middle school grades, 6-9th, could use one more helper Wednesday evenings.

Please come and join the team of volunteers, you will be rewarded in more ways than you may think. Give Fr. Andrew a call or Terrie Lynn in the office if you wish to help.

Middle School Students in grades 6, 7, and 8, and Youth Leaders are invited to the 2021 Middle School Youth Rally October, 21st, at Lincoln High School in Thief River Falls, MN. The theme of the rally is Created, based off Ephesians 2:10:

“For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.”

We belong to God. We are his handiwork, and what a privilege this is! We are made with purpose, and for a purpose; God has always been clear about this! (See: Psalm 139, Isaiah 49:16, Zechariah 2:8, and Luke 12:7 for a quick review) and he affirmed this, big time, when he sent his Son, Jesus Christ, to save us!

Joe Melendrez from Together in Spirit and worship leader Hannah Schaefer (www.hannahschafermusic.com) will lead our youth in a faith-filled experience, anchored in the sacraments; an opportunity to celebrate “the great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! (1 John 3:1)”
