2nd Sunday of Lent

"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession." (GENESIS 15:7)

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing equally in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

St. Mary's

Hello Religious Education Families,

The season of Lent has begun! Please remind your kiddos the importance of prayer, fasting (not just from food, but the act of giving something up) and almsgiving! The children will be learning about Saint Patrick on March 16th and celebrating with green cookies during meal time.

A big thank you to Tom and Cyd for taking over meal time tasks! If you are able to help with any sort of donation, food or time, please let me know!

We are also still looking for student volunteers for Ham Bingo by the Knights of Columbus on April 9th!

Community service hours will be given.

Thank
You,
Ashley

DMS

The Disciple Makers Survey that was completed had a total of 37 questions evaluated. The categories available for selection were strongly agree, agree, neither agree nor disagree, disagree, and strongly disagree.

The answers were rated using the net promoter score (NPS). The NPS is determined by comparing strongly agree against strongly disagree, disagree, and neither agree nor disagree. If the higher number is in the strongly agree category the result is given a plus percentage, if the three categories ( strongly disagree, disagree, neither agree nor disagree) is the higher number the answer is given a negative value. The results are given a specific percentage and can be assessed in a follow up survey to determine progress. We had 17 questions that had a negative value and 20 that had a positive value. The values ranged from -56 to +78.

An answer to a question that caught my attention was a -17, the question was ( involving me in decisions that affect the future of the parish ).

At our next parish council meeting we will discuss which three areas of opportunity we should pursue.

The Glory in Sight: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Second Sunday of Lent

Readings:

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18
Psalm 27:1, 7-9, 13-14
Philippians 3:17-4:1
Luke 9:28-36

In today's Gospel, we go up to the mountain with Peter, John, and James. There we see Jesus "transfigured," speaking with Moses and Elijah about His "exodus."

The Greek word "exodus" means "departure." But the word is chosen deliberately here to stir our remembrance of the Israelites' flight from Egypt.

By His death and resurrection, Jesus will lead a new Exodus—liberating not only Israel but every race and people; not from bondage to Pharaoh, but from slavery to sin and death. He will lead all mankind, not to the territory promised to Abraham in today's First Reading, but to the heavenly commonwealth that Paul describes in today's Epistle.

Moses, the giver of God's law, and the great prophet Elijah, were the only Old Testament figures to hear the voice and see the glory of God atop a mountain (see Exodus 24:15-18; 1 Kings 19:8-18).

Today's scene closely resembles God's revelation to Moses, who also brought along three companions and whose face also shone brilliantly (see Exodus 24:1; 34:29). But when the divine cloud departs in today's Gospel, Moses and Elijah are gone. Only Jesus remains. He has revealed the glory of the Trinity—the voice of the Father, the glorified Son, and the Spirit in the shining cloud.

Jesus fulfills all that Moses and the prophets had come to teach and show us about God (see Luke 24:27). He is the "chosen One" promised by Isaiah (see Isaiah 42:1; Luke 23:35), the "prophet like me" that Moses had promised (see Deuteronomy 18:15; Acts 3:22-23; 7:37). Far and above that, He is the Son of God (see Psalm 2:7; Luke 3:21-23).

"Listen to Him," the Voice tells us from the cloud. If, like Abraham, we put our faith in His words, one day we too will be delivered into "the land of the living" that we sing of in today's Psalm. We will share in His resurrection, as Paul promises, our lowly bodies glorified like His.
