15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" Luke 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

Eucharistic Revival - A Revival of Faith

Do you become discouraged by the numbers of the faithful leaving the Church; or by the increasing number of people who don't believe Christ is fully present in the Eucharist? Does your faith ever waiver? Do you ever hear people say they aren't being "fed" when they go to Mass. They are seeking more. But more what?

More lively, bouncy music? Better homilies? Feeling warm and fuzzy inside? More inclusiveness? Our Lord was the most inclusive person in history! He loved tax collectors and sinners of all kinds. But he also challenged them. He challenged them to be what they were called to be, children of the Living God. Maybe we need to be challenged. What's holding us back? Let's begin by asking the Holy Spirit for our own revival of faith, and the gift of being able to share that faith through our example. There is a quote attributed to St. Francis, "Preach the Gospel at all times. If necessary, use words."

Concert

The Jonathan Group will be live in Concert on July 23rd, 2022 at 6pm at Allison Park in Warroad. This is free to the public, go, enjoy an evening of entertainment.

Weeding needed

If you enjoy the great outdoors, St. Mary's could use some weeding around the building and in the Rosary Garden, your help would be appreciated. Students, please check in with parish office to obtain your community service hours.

Thank you to all our Musicians who offer their time to share their amazing talent with our parishes. We appreciate your services.

Terrie Lynn will be out of the office July 15th to July 19th, if you wish to have something in next week's bulletin, please have it submitted by Wed. July 13th. Thank you.

What We Must Do: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Psalm 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36-37

Colossians 1:15-20

Luke 10:25-37

We are to love God and our neighbor with all the strength of our being, as the scholar of the Law answers Jesus in this week's Gospel.

This command is nothing remote or mysterious—it's already written in our hearts, in the book of Sacred Scripture. "You have only to carry it out," Moses says in this week's First Reading.

Jesus tells His interrogator the same thing: "Do this and you will live."

The scholar, however, wants to know where he can draw the line. That's the motive behind his question, "Who is my neighbor?"

In his compassion, the Samaritan in Jesus' parable reveals the boundless mercy of God, Who came down to us when we were fallen in sin, close to dead, unable to pick ourselves up.

Jesus is "the image of the invisible God," this week's Epistle tells us. In Him, the love of God has come very near to us. By the "blood of His Cross"—by bearing His neighbors' sufferings in His own body, being Himself stripped and beaten and left for dead—He saved us from the bonds of sin and reconciled us to God and to one another.

Like the Samaritan, He pays the price for us, heals the wounds of sin, pours out on us the oil and wine of the sacraments, and entrusts us to the care of His Church until He comes back for us.

Because His love has known no limits, ours cannot either. We are to love as we have been loved, to do for others what He has done for us, joining all things together in His Body, the Church.

We are to love like the singer of this week's Psalm—like those whose prayers have been answered, like those whose lives have been saved, who have known the time of His favor, have seen God in His great mercy turn toward us.

This is the love that leads to eternal life, the love Jesus commands today of the scholar and of each of us: "Go and do likewise."
