17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." Luke 11:9
Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Generosity is a gift that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

All three Parishes

Education Corner

Holy Ground

In big ways and small, our behavior at Mass sets the stage for how others see Jesus. That's why the desire of so many to bring back a sense of reverence to our weekly worship struck a chord with Bishop Cozzens, who sees this as one of the greatest needs of the Church today.

We are the church of "bells and smells." So much of what we do is significant and integral to our worship. We bow. We kneel. We genuflect. Do you know why? It's an important sign of respect for Him whose presence we approach. Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist reserved in the tabernacle from the prior Mass.

We are on holy ground when we enter the doors of the sanctuary. We speak in whispers so that we don't disturb those who are in prayer. We turn our attention from whatever else is going on in our lives to the miracle of what is about to happen. We are preparing to receive the King of the Universe into our poor hearts. Maranatha!

As of July 15th, 2022

2022 DAA Status Report	Goal	Received
Sacred Heart, Baudette	$7,748	$6,115
St. Mary's, Warroad	$13,411	$9,500
St. Joseph's Williams	$2,597	$1,700

St. Mary's Rosary Garden

Thanks to our parishioners the grounds are looking great!!! Can anyone spare 20 minutes to visit the prayer garden and pull a few weeds or dead-heads on a few flowers up through Aug. 15th? Whatever fits your schedule. Twenty minutes from a handful of different people would be so appreciated.
Thank you.

Asked and Answered: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Genesis 18:20–32

Psalm 138:1–3, 6–8

Colossians 2:12–14

Luke 11:1–13

Though we be “but dust and ashes,” we can presume to draw near and speak boldly to our Lord, as Abraham dares to do in this week’s First Reading.

But even Abraham—the friend of God (see Isaiah 41:8), our father in the faith (see Romans 4:12)—did not know the intimacy that we know as children of Abraham, heirs of the blessings promised to his descendants (see Galatians 3:7, 29).

The mystery of prayer, as Jesus reveals to His disciples in this week’s Gospel, is the living relationship of beloved sons and daughters with their heavenly Father. Our prayer is pure gift, made possible by the “good gift” of the Father—the Holy Spirit of His Son. It is the fruit of the New Covenant by which we are made children of God in Christ Jesus (see Galatians 4:6–7; Romans 8:15–16).

Through the Spirit given to us in Baptism, we can cry to Him as our Father—knowing that when we call He will answer.

Jesus teaches His disciples to persist in their prayer, as Abraham persisted in begging God’s mercy for the innocent of Sodom and Gomorrah.

For the sake of the one just Man, Jesus, God spared the city of man from destruction (see Jeremiah 5:1; Isaiah 53), “obliterating the bond against us,” as Paul says in this week’s Epistle.

On the Cross, Jesus bore the guilt of us all. He canceled the debt we owed to God, the death we deserved to die for our transgressions. We pray as ones who have been visited in our affliction and saved from our enemies, as ones who have been spared.

We pray always a prayer of thanksgiving, which is the literal meaning of “Eucharist.” We have realized the promise of this week’s Psalm: we worship in His holy temple, in the presence of angels, hallowing His name.

In confidence we ask, knowing that we will receive, that He will bring to completion what He has done for us—raising us from the dead, bringing us to everlasting life along with Him.
