“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” Luke 12:15
The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from “emptying” ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

Eucharist - Source and Summit

Pope Saint John Paul II is a beloved patriarch of our faith. He was also a gifted and prolific writer. His encyclical, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, (Vatican.va) is a deeply touching view of the Eucharist and our relationship to it. His love for the Mass is clearly evident in this relatively brief document, which is highly readable and easily understandable.

“The Second Vatican Council rightly proclaimed that the Eucharistic sacrifice is “the source and summit of the Christian life,” he wrote. That is to say that everything in our lives is leading us to “this great sacrament,” and everything should flow forth from it.

Imagine what might change in our daily lives if we focus on that fact. Everything we do and say today goes with us before the altar as we present ourselves for holy communion. We then take Jesus with us in our very bodies as we leave the celebration. So He effectively participates in our every thought word and action.

2022 DAA Summer Appeal

For those of you who have contributed to the 2022 DAA thank you and God bless you. If you have not yet had the opportunity to make your commitment this year or would like to make a second gift to the appeal to help us reach our goal, please visit www.crookston.org/DAA.

St. Mary's Rosary Garden

Thanks to our parishioners the grounds are looking great!!! Can anyone spare 20 minutes to visit the prayer garden and pull a few weeds or deadheads on a few flowers up through Aug. 15th? Whatever fits your schedule. Twenty minutes from a handful of different people would be so appreciated. Thank you.

The Fool's Vanity: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21–23

Psalm 90:3–4, 5–6, 12–13, 14, 17

Colossians 3:1–5, 9–11

Luke 12:13–21

Trust in God—as the Rock of our salvation, as the Lord who made us His chosen people, as our shepherd and guide. This should be the mark of our following of Jesus.

Like the Israelites we recall in this week's Psalm Response, we have made an exodus, passing through the waters of Baptism, freeing us from our bondage to sin. We too are on a pilgrimage to a promised homeland, the Lord in our midst, feeding us heavenly bread, giving us living waters to drink (see 1 Corinthians 10:1–4).

We must take care to guard against the folly that befell the Israelites, that led them to quarrel and test God's goodness at Meribah and Massah.

We can harden our hearts in ways more subtle but no less ruinous. We can put our trust in possessions, squabble over earthly inheritances, kid ourselves that what we have we deserve, store up treasures and think they'll afford us security and rest.

All this is “vanity of vanities,” a false and deadly way of living, as this week's First Reading tells us.

This is the greed that Jesus warns against in this week's Gospel. The rich man's anxiety and toil expose his lack of faith in God's care and provision. That's why Paul calls greed “idolatry” in the Epistle this week. Mistaking having for being, possession for existence, we forget that God is the giver of all that we have, we exalt the things we can make or buy over our Maker (see Romans 1:25).

Jesus calls the rich man a “fool”—a word used in the Old Testament for someone who rebels against God or has forgotten Him (see Psalm 14:1).

We should treasure most the new life we have been given in Christ and seek what is above, the promised inheritance of heaven. We have to see all things in the light of eternity, mindful that He who gives us the breath of life could at any moment—this night even—demand it back from us.
