21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last." Luke 13:30

Our cultural standards are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you, "What have you done with the gifts I have given you?" How will you respond?

St. Mary's

Religious Ed

The Work of the People

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) tells us about how we rightly worship together as the Body of Christ. It defines the liturgy and our part in it. Liturgy, in fact, means the work of the people. It requires our active participation. We need to shed our day-to-day concerns and focus on what God is saying to us in the Mass. We need to actively listen, faithfully respond and consciously apply what we are hearing to our own lives through the prayers, the homily, even the words of the songs. "Moreover, they are to form one body, whether in hearing the word of God, or in taking part in the prayers and in the singing, or above all by the common offering of the Sacrifice and by participating together at the Lord's table" (GIRM, no. 96). Besides the ordained priests and deacons, lay people also serve important roles in every liturgy. There are numerous ministries which can help lead people into deeper participation in the Mass. From music to being a cross-bearer or bringing the gifts to the altar, it's heartening to see so many young people becoming involved in these ministries. There are also numerous "unseen" ministries in which you can participate, such as building and grounds maintenance, cleaning and decoration of the worship space, even washing and ironing altar linens. Everyone is able to participate. Where do your gifts fit in?

Bishop's Pastoral Visit

Bishop Andrew Cozzens of Crookston Diocese will make a pastoral visit to St. Joseph's, Williams and St. Mary's, Warroad on September 24th. He will celebrate the 4:30 pm Mass in Williams and the 6:00 pm Mass in Warroad. Following the 6 pm Mass in Warroad, there will be a potluck dinner in the fellowship Hall for parishioners to meet and greet the bishop. The bishop has confirmation the next day in Roseau, so, after the 8:30 am Mass on Sunday, he will leave for Roseau. He will not be able to visit Sacred Heart, Baudette on this weekend. Please mark your calendars and be available to welcome the bishop for the first time to our parishes.

Readings

Isaiah 66:18–21
Psalm 117:1, 2
Hebrews 12:5–7, 11–13
Luke 13:22–30

Jesus doesn't answer the question put to Him in this Sunday's Gospel. It profits us nothing to speculate on how many will be saved. What we need to know is what He tells us today—how to enter into salvation and how urgent it is to strive now, before the Master closes the door.

Jesus is "the narrow gate," the only way of salvation, the path by which all must travel to enter the kingdom of the Father (see John 14:6).

In Jesus, God has come—as He promises in this week's First Reading—to gather nations of every language, to reveal to them His glory.

Eating and drinking with them, teaching in their streets, Jesus in the Gospel is slowly making His way to Jerusalem. There, Isaiah's vision will be fulfilled: On the holy mountain He will be lifted up (see John 3:14), and He will draw to Himself brethren from among all the nations to worship in the heavenly Jerusalem, to glorify Him for His kindness, as we sing in today's Psalm.

In God's plan, the kingdom was proclaimed first to the Israelites and last to the Gentiles (see Romans 1:16; Acts 3:25–26), who in the Church have come from the earth's four corners to make up the new people of God (see Isaiah 43:5–6; Psalm 107:2–3).

Many, however, will lose their place at the heavenly table, Jesus warns. Refusing to accept His narrow way they will weaken, rendering themselves unknown to the Father (see Isaiah 63:15–16).

We don't want to be numbered among those of drooping hands and weak knees (see Isaiah 35:3). So, we must strive for that narrow gate, a way of hardship and suffering—the way of the beloved Son.

As this week's Epistle reminds us, by our trials we know we are truly God's sons and daughters. We are being disciplined by our afflictions, strengthened to walk that straight and narrow path—that we may enter the gate and take our place at the banquet of the righteous.
