24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Everything I have is yours." Luke 15:31

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son, we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do you really want to turn your back on all that God offers in exchange for material wealth that has no lasting value? God wants us to be happy on earth as well. But, that requires us to freely accept His gift of faith; putting Him first in all things and detaching from our own self-sufficiency.

NET MINISTRIES CONFIRMATION RETREAT

The Diocese of Crookston will be hosting a Net Ministries Confirmation Retreat at Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Detroit Lakes on Saturday, September 24th from 10 AM to 6 PM. The cost of the retreat is $40.00. Lunch and snacks will be provided. This is an opportunity for all youth preparing for confirmation to have a retreat experience prior to receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. This is open to all high school students in the Diocese of Crookston. We are not doing this as a class, so transportation would be upon the family or families to arrange carpooling.

If your child is interested, please reach out to Tammi Moes in the parish office to get further registration links and waivers.

SPECIAL INVITATION TO MIDDLE-SCHOOLERS FROM ANNETTE HAAS – ST. PETER THE APOSTLE CATHOLIC CHURCH, PARK RAPIDS

St. Peter the Apostle Catholic Church in Park Rapids will be hosting a Net Ministries retreat for Middle-Schoolers on Sunday, September 25. Details for this event are being finalized. If you are interested in having your middle school youth attend, please contact Annette Haas at 218-732-5142 office • 218-616-2404 cell or annette@stpeterpr.org

MARK YOUR CALENDARS, there will be Mass and an Ice Cream Social for all Faith formation families and volunteers on Sept. 21st @ 6pm. We are asking for a donation of $40/Student. You can stop by the office to make your donation or label an envelope "For Rel. Ed." and place in collection basket or Rel. Ed. box in gathering space of church. If you would rather pay online, visit our website: www.stmaryswarroad.org click "Online giving" in top menu and follow instructions. Thank you.

Sacramental Theology

The Catechism tells us that Christ's Paschal Mystery is "a real event that occurred in our history, but it is unique: all other historical events happen once, and then they pass away, swallowed up in the past. The Paschal Mystery of Christ, by contrast, cannot remain only in the past, because by his death he destroyed death, and all that Christ is - all that he did and suffered for all men - participates in the divine eternity, and so transcends all times while being made present in them all. The event of the Cross and Resurrection abides and draws everything toward life" (CCC 185).

Wait...what? The Paschal Mystery is beyond our construct of time. So, God created time, but does not know time? Basically, yes. To God past, present and future are all wrapped up in the now. Stay with me here. Every Mass you attend is in your present, but for God it is a re-presentation of that moment when Jesus, of His own free will, offered Himself as the sacrificial lamb whose blood created a new covenant with God the Father. A sacrifice which is the only offering capable of saving us from eternal death. God is not only present with you at the Mass, He is at the same time seeing the sacrifice of His only Son for love of us. That should be worth some reflection time in the upcoming week...

Bishop's Pastoral Visit

Bishop Andrew Cozzens of Crookston Diocese will make a pastoral visit to St. Joseph's, Williams and St. Mary's, Warroad on September 24th. He will celebrate the 4:30 pm Mass in Williams and the 6:00 pm Mass in Warroad. Following the 6 pm Mass in Warroad, there will be a potluck dinner in the fellowship Hall for parishioners to meet and greet the bishop. The bishop has confirmation the next day in Roseau, so, after the 8:30 am Mass on Sunday, he will leave for Roseau. He will not be able to visit Sacred Heart, Baudette on this weekend. Please mark your calendars and be available to welcome the bishop for the first time to our parishes.

Seeking the Lost: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14
Psalm 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19
1 Timothy 1:12-17
Luke 15:1-10

The episode in today's First Reading has been called "Israel's original sin." Freed from bondage, born as a people of God in the covenant at Sinai, Israel turned aside from His ways and fell to worshipping a golden calf.

Moses implores God's mercy, just as Jesus will later intercede for the whole human race. Just as He still pleads for sinners at God's right hand and through the ministry of the Church.

Israel's sin is the sin of the world. It is your sin and mine. Ransomed from death and made His children in Baptism, we fall prey to the idols of this world. We remain a "stiff-necked people," resisting His will for us like an ox refuses the plowman's yoke (see Jeremiah 7:26).

Like Israel, in our sin we push God away and reject our divine sonship. Once He called us "my people" (see Exodus 3:10; 6:7). But our sin makes us "no people," people He should, in justice, disown (see Deuteronomy 32:21; 1 Peter 2:10).

Yet in His mercy, He is faithful to the covenant He swore by His own self in Jesus. In Jesus, God comes to Israel and to each of us—as a shepherd to seek the lost (see Ezekiel 34:11–16), to carry us back to the heavenly feast, the perpetual heritage promised long ago to Abraham's children.

"Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners," Paul cries in today's Epistle. These are the happiest words the world has ever known. Because of Jesus, as Paul himself can testify, even the blasphemer and persecutor can seek His mercy.

As the sinners do in today's Gospel, we draw near to listen to Him. In this Eucharist, we bring Him the acceptable sacrifice we sing of in today's Psalm—our hearts, humbled and contrite.

In the company of His angels and saints, we rejoice that He has wiped out our offense. We celebrate with Him that we have turned from the evil way that we might live (see Ezekiel 18:23).
