Saturday, Oct. 8th, Mass @ 4:30pm: For the Parish

Beginning Sunday Oct. 2nd, Sacred Heart will recommence the practice of praying the rosary before mass. The rosary will take place at 10:00am each Sunday prior to the 10:30 mass. All are highly encouraged to attend this important devotion to our Blessed Mother. Anyone wanting to help with this devotion please contact Kevin Scharfenkamp at kevinschar@aol.com or (951) 764-4172.

Let's learn together!

I mentioned earlier that we have a great resource available to us in the Formed program. We will view "The Search" from Augustine Institute. We will be meeting every 1st and 3rd Sunday in the basement of Sacred Heart from 4:00-5:00pm, beginning October 16th. This will be an opportunity for all of us from age 11 to 111 to continue to learn more about our relationship with God and His Church. Years ago, we had an 83 year old man in our confirmation class each week. When he was asked why he attended the class, he said that he still needed to continue learning about his faith! This was a great testament for all of us. Anyone from all three parishes is invited to attend. Thanks, Deacon Jim

St. Joseph's Williams Invitation to a meeting: All parishioners of St. Joseph's Parish, Williams are invited to a meeting on Saturday, October 8th at 3: 30 pm in the parish hall to discuss the winter Mass schedule.

MAINTENANCE FUND THANK YOU!

We have started a maintenance fund at Sacred Heart, with the first project being the replacement of the basement windows. We want to say "Thank You" to those who have already donated!

October 2, 2022
27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." 2 Timothy 1:7
Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

All three Parishes

PLEASE HOLD IN PRAYER

Helic Berg, Buzz Marvin, Ron Wesolowski, Alva Larson, Joleen Hartman, Curtis Anderson, Louise Menk, Leila & Nelson Armagon, Theodora Adikini, Mike Hovde, Hilde & Larry Barbot, Lillian Fortier, & Tom Gerszewski.

NOTE: If you wish to have a family member or friend listed, please call or email the parish office (386-1178, or stmarys2@mncable.net). Please remember that hospitals will not call us unless a patient asks that a priest be notified. Thank you!

There will be no Confession next Saturday, October 8th at 3 pm. Fr. Andrew has a meeting with parishioners in Williams.

Rectory Roofing Project at St Mary's

The roofs of the rectory house and garage needed new shingles. A decision was made to contract Steve Meek to put new shingles before the winter season begins. Work on the project has already started and will be completed soon. The whole project will cost $8,850. Last year a parishioner donated $8,000 to the church, which had been reserved for the church sign project. After consultation with the parishioner, we decided to use this money for roofing the rectory and then do fundraising for the church sign project next year. We thank the donor for his generosity.

More to be Learned at the Foot of the Cross

Vatican II told us to be fully conscious and participate actively in the Mass. We're trying hard to really understand that concept and put it into practice during this period of Eucharistic Revival. The Council also said that the lay faithful "should be instructed by God's word and be nourished at the table of the Lord's body; they should give thanks to God; by offering the Immaculate Victim, not only through the hands of the priest, but also with him, they should learn also to offer themselves; through Christ the Mediator, they should be drawn day by day into ever more perfect union with God and with each other" (Second Vatican Council, Sacrosanctum Concilium, 48).

Bishop Cozzens elaborates, "To truly participate in the Eucharist, we must be like Mary. We must be aware of the mystery being celebrated. Here on this altar Christ is pouring out his life. We must then take that mystery into our daily lives. I must allow this reality to transform all my actions so that my life too can become a gift, an offering, through him, with him, in him. I must learn to offer my life with Christ, as Mary did at the foot of the Cross" (www.eucharisticrevival.org/post/the-spiritual-life-how-the-eucharist-catechizes-about-the-meaning-of-life).

Life by Faith: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

Psalm 95:1-2, 6-9

2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

Luke 17:5-10

Because of his faith, the just man shall live. We hear in today's First Reading the original prophetic line made so central by St. Paul (see Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38). We are to live by faith in Christ who loved us and gave Himself on the Cross for us (see Galatians 2:20).

The world, though, can seem to us as seventh-century Judah seemed to Habakkuk—in the control of God's enemies. The strife and discord we face in our own lives can sometimes cause us to wonder, as the prophet does, why God doesn't seem to hear or intervene when we cry for help.

We can't let our hearts be hardened by the trials we undergo. As today's Psalm reminds us: Israel forgot His mighty works, lost faith in the sound words of His promise. They tested God in the desert, demanding a sign.

But God didn't redeem Israel from Egypt only to let them die in the desert. And He didn't ransom us from futility only to abandon us in our trials. He is our God and we are the people He shepherds always—though at times His mercy and justice seem long delayed.

If we call on the Lord, as the Apostles do in today's Gospel, He will increase our faith, will stir to a flame the Holy Spirit who has dwelt within us since Baptism.

As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, the Lord will always give us the love and self-control we need to bear our share of hardship for the Gospel—with a strength that can come from God alone.

Our task is to continue doing what He has commanded—to love and to build up His kingdom—trusting that His vision still presses on to its fulfillment.

For His vision still has its time. One day, though we are but “unprofitable servants,” we will be invited to eat and drink at our Master's table. It is that day we anticipate with each celebration of the Eucharist.
