Sacred Heart Women's Group

Any lady with an interest in participating in a Women's Group is urged to attend a gathering on November 20th after mass to explore what type(s) of groups might be formed.

“...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.”<sup>2</sup> THESSALONIANS 3:9
 Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

Mass of Light

Losing a child is one of the most difficult things a person can endure. Whether your loss was recent or long ago, there is hope, healing, support and love.

On Monday November 21rd at 6:30 pm St. Mary's will hold a special “Mass of Light, for those who have experienced Miscarriage, Still Birth, Infant and Child loss.”

This Mass is a way to commemorate the lives of our children who died before or after birth. Couples, family members, friends and all parishioners are encouraged to attend this Mass as we pray for our children and show support for those who love and mourn for them.

We invite the community to participate, please invite another to attend. If you would like to have your child prayed for by name during the Mass, please call the parish office at (218) 386-1178, or text Terrie Lynn at 218-386 2727, or email stmarys2@mncable.net before November 16th.

If you have a loved one in the nursing home who wishes to attend Masses at the nursing home, but for whatever reason has not been able to, please let St. Mary's office know, so we can add their name to the list and do our best to help them attend.

Nuclear fission

So, by actively participating in the Mass, we not only fully receive Jesus into our very selves, but we make ourselves an offering back to Him. It's the greatest expression of love this side of heaven! Now, during this period of Eucharistic revival, we need to become aware of what is actually happening to us. We're not just doing something nice, or fulfilling our Catholic commitment; we are becoming Christ to others. This is meant to be a life-changing experience. Do you feel different after leaving Mass? Pope Benedict XVI compared what happens to us when receiving Christ's most precious gift of His body and blood to nuclear fission - when a neutron slams into an atom and forces it to split and release a tremendous amount of energy. (Sacramentum Caritatis, no. 11.) Nuclear fission also causes a chain reaction, more atoms splitting; more energy being released. That's radical change. The kind of change our world needs so desperately.

Let's make it our mission during this renewal period to pray that we may be radically changed so that those around us can sense the change and, in a chain reaction, seek that same change in their own lives.

Please Hold in Prayer

Don McKay, Helic Berg, Buzz Marvin, Ron Wesolowski, Joleen Hartman, Curtis Anderson, Louise Menk, Leila & Nelson Armagon, Theodora Adikini, Mike Hovde, Hilde & Larry Barbot, Lillian Fortier, & Tom Gerszewski.

NOTE: If you wish to have a family member or friend listed, please call or email the parish office (386-1178, or stmarys2@mncable.net). Please remember that hospitals will not call us unless a patient asks that a priest be notified.

“Today” is the Day: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Malachi 3:19–20

Psalm 98:5–9

2 Thessalonians 3:7–12

Luke 21:5–19

It is the age between our Lord’s first coming and His last. We live in the new world begun by His life, death, Resurrection, and Ascension, by the sending of His Spirit upon the Church. But we await the day when He will come again in glory.

“Lo, the day is coming,” Malachi warns in today’s First Reading. The prophets taught Israel to look for the Day of the Lord, when He would gather the nations for judgment (see Zephaniah 3:8; Isaiah 3:9; 2 Peter 3:7).

Jesus anticipates this day in today’s Gospel. He cautions us not to be deceived by those claiming “the time has come.” Such deception is the background also for today’s Epistle (see 2 Thessalonians 2:1–3).

The signs Jesus gives His Apostles seem to already have come to pass in the New Testament. In Acts, the Epistles, and Revelation, we read of famines, earthquakes, and the Temple’s desolation. We read of persecutions—believers imprisoned and put to death, testifying to their faith with wisdom in the Spirit.

These “signs,” then, show us the pattern for the Church’s life—both in the New Testament and today.

We too live in a world of nations and kingdoms at war. And we should take the Apostles as our “models,” as today’s Epistle counsels. Like them we must persevere in the face of unbelieving relatives, friends, forces, and authorities hostile to God.

As we do in today’s Psalm, we should sing His praises and joyfully proclaim His coming as Lord and King. The Day of the Lord is always a day that has already come and a day still yet to come. It is the “today” of our Liturgy.

The Apostles prayed marana tha—“O Lord come!” (see 1 Corinthians 16:22; Revelation 22:20). In the Eucharist He answers, coming again as the Lord of Hosts and the Sun of Justice with its healing rays. It is a mighty sign—and a pledge of that Day to come.
