Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"...giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light."

Colossians 1:12

God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can't do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or we spend most of our time trying to acquire more stuff. Instead, try putting God first in all things. We were made for God. Open your heart and let Him in!

From Bishop Andrew Cozzens

Join me in studying the Catechism in a Year! As I wrote in my November OND column, I am inviting anyone in the diocese, especially teachers, catechists, youth ministers, priests, deacons, and others, to join me in listening to the Catechism in a Year podcast. Father Mike Schmitz, who hosted the most popular religious podcast in the country in 2021 (The Bible in a Year) is now hosting a new podcast, The Catechism in a Year. Every day in 2023 he will share a 15-20 minute segment of the Catechism of the Catholic Church along with a short commentary. This daily podcast, over the space of 365 days, will allow us to traverse the entire Catechism, which, as you know, is a brilliant, in-depth, inspirational summary of the entire Catholic Faith. If you want to join me on this journey, send an email to communications@crookston.org and in mid-December we will send instructions on signing up to be part of our group that commits to growing in our faith together. The group will have an opportunity for daily connection through online posting and participating in a monthly live online connection.

Mass of Light

On Monday November 21st we will celebrate Mass of Light at 6:30 pm at St. Mary's. This Mass is for those who have experienced Miscarriage, Still Birth, Infant and Child loss."

This Mass is a way to commemorate the lives of our children who died before or after birth. Couples, family members, friends and all parishioners are encouraged to attend this Mass as we pray for our children and show support for those who love and mourn for them.

We invite the community to participate, please invite another to attend. If you would like to have your child prayed for by name during the Mass, please call the parish office at (218) 386-1178, or text Terrie Lynn at 218-386 2727, or email stmarys2@mncable.net

Education Corner

Be a chicken

Pope Francis has said that "we are in the middle of a love story...if we do not understand this, we have understood nothing of what the Church is." (www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/27073/church-is-a-love-story-pop...) Strong words meant to wake us up. We were created for this time. We could have been born a hundred years ago, but we have a purpose now. Tell your children. Tell your friends. There is a reason you are living and breathing today, and it's critical to this time, this place, this period of revival!

The Eucharistic Revival isn't just about our faith in the Real Presence. It's about using what we receive from our faith to heal that which is broken around us. Just being faithful about receiving the Eucharist or going to adoration won't automatically create change. St. Therese of Lisieux recommends that we do little things with great love. Little things like asking how someone is doing, saying thank you to a server, smiling at a stranger. No pain there. No commitment. We're just being chickens. You've no doubt heard the old story about the chicken and the pig. They both contribute to your breakfast, but one of them is really committed. Maybe we can just start out as chickens and pray to become more committed.

Thanksgiving Week

St. Mary's: Mass of light is on Monday at 6:30pm. No daily Mass the rest of the week. The Parish Office will be closed on Thursday and Friday.

Sacred Heart Baudette: Mass on Tuesday at 8: 30 am. No Mass on Wednesday.

May you and your Family have a safe and Happy Holiday. God Bless.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Kingdom of the Son: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Solemnity of Christ the King

Readings:

2 Samuel 5:1-3

Psalm 122:1-5

Colossians 1:12-20

Luke 23:35-43

Week by week, the Liturgy has been preparing us for the revelation to be made on this, the last Sunday of the Church year.

Jesus, we have been shown, is truly the Chosen One, the Messiah of God, the King of the Jews. Ironically, in today's Gospel we hear these names on the lips of those who don't believe in Him—Israel's rulers, the soldiers, a criminal dying alongside Him.

They can only see the scandal of a bloodied figure nailed to a cross. They scorn Him in words and gestures foretold in Israel's Scriptures (see Psalm 22:7-9; 69:21-22; Wisdom 2:18-20). If He is truly King, God will rescue Him, they taunt. But He did not come to save Himself, but to save them—and us.

The good thief shows us how we are to accept the salvation He offers us. He confesses his sins and acknowledges he deserves to die for them. And he calls on the name of Jesus, seeking His mercy and forgiveness.

By his faith he is saved. Jesus “remembers” him—as God has always remembered His people, visiting them with His saving deeds, numbering them among His chosen heirs (see Psalm 106:4-5).

By the blood of His cross, Jesus reveals His Kingship—not in saving His own life, but in offering it as a ransom for ours. He transfers us to “the kingdom of His beloved Son,” as today's Epistle tells us.

His kingdom is the Church, the new Jerusalem and House of David that we sing of in today's Psalm.

By their covenant with David in today's First Reading, Israel's tribes are made one “bone and flesh” with their king. By the New Covenant made in His blood, Christ becomes one flesh with the people of His kingdom—the head of His body, the Church (see Ephesians 5:23-32).

We celebrate and renew this covenant in every Eucharist, giving thanks for our redemption, hoping for the day when we too will be with Him in Paradise.

And of course, all parishioners are encouraged to keep our students in our prayers.

THANK YOU!

A big thank you again to the several parishioners who have supported me on my journey to complete 3,000 Push-ups Challenge, a fundraiser for St. Jude's Research Hospital. I have so far completed 2,630 push-ups to help raise awareness to this amazing program. Together we have raised $510. We are making a difference in the world. What an awesome feeling.
