32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word." 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17
There are two important lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope with others. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.

Mass of Light

Losing a child is one of the most difficult things a person can endure. Whether your loss was recent or long ago, there is hope, healing, support and love.

On Monday November 21st at 6:30 pm St. Mary's will hold a special "Mass of Light, for those who have experienced Miscarriage, Still Birth, Infant and Child loss."

This Mass is a way to commemorate the lives of our children who died before or after birth. Couples, family members, friends and all parishioners are encouraged to attend this Mass as we pray for our children and show support for those who love and mourn for them.

We invite the community to participate, please invite another to attend. If you would like to have your child prayed for by name during the Mass, please call the parish office at (218) 386-1178, or text Terrie Lynn at 218-386 2727, or email stmarys2@mncable.net before November 16th.

If you have a loved one in the nursing home who wishes to attend Masses at the nursing home, but for whatever reason has not been able to, please let St. Mary's office know, so we can add their name to the list and do our best to help them attend.

Let's Grow Together In Faith!

Today, Sunday 11/6/22 4-5PM

We will be meeting in the basement of Sacred Heart this afternoon to share another installment of "The Search" video series. Everyone is invited. It will be a great opportunity to strengthen our faith, so that we can share it with others.

What may be simple is not easy

"What is lacking in Christ's afflictions? Only that you and I are not sharing in them." (www.eucharisticrevival.org/post/the-spiritual-life-how-the-eucharist-catechizes-about-the-meaning-of-life.) Bishop Cozzen's words hopefully strike a chord in our hearts. We can be closer to Christ by offering up our suffering to Him to be united with His. What are you suffering right now? It may be physical, emotional or even spiritual. Just say, "I offer it up, Jesus." Simple. Right? But not easy. Here's one way to help us remember to share our joys and our sufferings with Jesus. It's a little prayer that not only makes this offering, but reminds us what we are offering it for. It's called the Morning Offering. As you can see, it not only offers Jesus everything we will experience throughout our day, but unites it with the sacrifice of the Mass.

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, for the salvation of souls, the reparation of sins, the reunion of all Christians, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father this month. Amen.

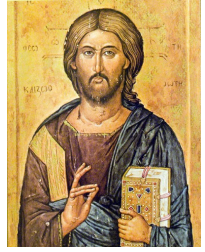

Please Hold in Prayer

Don McKay, Helic Berg, Buzz Marvin, Ron Wesolowski, Alva Larson, Joleen Hartman, Curtis Anderson, Louise Menk, Leila & Nelson Armagon, Theodora Adikini, Mike Hovde, Hilde & Larry Barbot, Lillian Fortier, & Tom Gerszewski.

NOTE: If you wish to have a family member or friend listed, please call or email the parish office (386-1178, or stmarys2@mncable.net). Please remember that hospitals will not call us unless a patient asks that a priest be notified.

To Rise Again: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

2 Maccabees 7:1–2, 9–14

Psalm 17:1, 5–6, 8, 15

2 Thessalonians 2:16–3:5

Luke 20:27–38

With their riddle about seven brothers and a childless widow, the Sadducees in today's Gospel mock the faith for which seven brothers and their mother die in the First Reading.

The Maccabean martyrs chose death—tortured limb by limb, burned alive—rather than betray God's Law. Their story is given to us in these last weeks of the Church year to strengthen us for endurance—that our feet not falter but remain steadfast on His paths.

The Maccabeans died hoping that the “King of the World” would raise them to live again forever (see 2 Maccabees 14:46).

The Sadducees don't believe in the Resurrection because they can't find it literally taught in the Scriptures. To ridicule this belief, they fix on a law that requires a woman to marry her husband's brother if he should die without leaving an heir (see Genesis 38:8; Deuteronomy 25:5).

But God's Law wasn't given to ensure the raising up of descendants to earthly fathers. The Law was given, as Jesus explains, to make us worthy to be “children of God”—sons and daughters born of His Resurrection.

“God our Father,” today's Epistle tells us, has given us “everlasting encouragement” in the Resurrection of Christ. Through His grace, we can now direct our hearts to the love of God.

As the Maccabeans suffered for the Old Law, we will have to suffer for our faith in the New Covenant. Yet, He will guard us in the shadow of His wing. He will keep us as the apple of His eye, as we sing in today's Psalm. The Maccabeans' persecutors marveled at their courage. We too can glorify the Lord in our sufferings and in the daily sacrifices we make.

And we have even greater cause for hope than they did. One who has risen from the dead has given us His word—that He is the God of the living, that when we awake from the sleep of death we will behold His face and be content in His presence (see Psalm 76:6; Daniel 12:2).

St. Mary's Religious Education

Thank You Volunteers

Thank you to all the volunteers who made Family Faith Night a warm and fun evening for all our Religious Education families and guests from the Mass, Meal and Games. Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for running BINGO and for your monetary contribution towards the prizes. We look forward to the next Family Faith Night scheduled for January 18th at 6pm.

Circle of Grace training for K-12th was held during classes Oct. 12th & Oct. 26th. We will have training for Kindergarten class on Nov. 7th. If parents wish not to have their child participate, please contact Tammi.

Confirmation Mass Update

We changed the time for Confirmation Mass on Sunday May 7th to 1:30PM (versus 8:30AM) due to Prom being held the night before. There will still be a regular Mass at 8:30AM as well. Confirmands need to arrive by 12:30pm to meet with Bishop Cozzens prior to go time.

Parents and Confirmation Candidates, on November 9th at 7pm, at St. Mary's, we will have an information meeting to discuss the requirements for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Service Hour Opportunities:

Knight's of Columbus are hosting their annual Turkey Bingo on November 19th at 7pm. They need help setting it up on Friday, Nov 18th from 4pm – 6pm; and we need youth volunteers (and few parents) to run the concession on the 18th from 6pm – conclusion. Concession proceeds come back to the Religious Education program. For any students needing service hours and available to volunteer, please sign up with Tammi via email or stop by her office.

Please mark your calendar for important RE Meetings:

- November 8th @ 9am: Religious Education Council Meeting
- November 9th @ 7pm: Confirmation Meeting with Parents/Candidates (meet in gathering space)
- November 20th @ 8:30am: Next youth Mass lead by 3rd & 4th grade (cookies to follow after Mass)
- November 23rd: NO RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASS (Thanksgiving Break)

Children's Sunday Liturgy began this Sunday November 6th. They will be offered most Sundays unless there is a Youth Mass or school is on break. PreK through 7 years old are invited to join Solveig Harren during the Liturgy of the Word. If you would like to volunteer to help on Sundays, please see Tammi. You must be current on the Safe Environment training to help. Thank you.

We are preparing for the Youth Christmas Eve Mass scheduled for December 24th, at 4:30pm. All students are invited to sing in the youth choir which practices on Wednesday during RE at 5:10-5:30. We hope families can attend this Mass celebration. More details to come.

Baking Opportunity

Invitation for children in 2nd—4th grade, to bake cookies with a dozen or so of our Life Enriched parish members. The date will be Sunday, December 4th from 1 pm – 4 pm in the Fellowship Hall at St. Mary's.

This is an opportunity to blend rich tradition with youthful imagination. Limited space is available, so please sign up quickly with Tammi or Terrie Lynn via email or in person.

BINGO

Knights of Columbus Turkey Bingo

Mark your calendars for November 19th, 7:30pm at St. Mary's Fellowship Hall. Join in the Fun.
