Thank you to those who stopped by last week for help getting the Flocknote App. With the app you can respond to the groups you are in, which will be helpful as more parishioners continue to get the app. Sacred Heart parishioners can also get it and join the SH group. If you have not yet got the App and need help, or you can not get the App on your phone because it is not supported, please stop by the Office next week on Monday and Terrie Lynn will help you. If that doesn't work, please set up a time with Terrie Lynn. Readers are encouraged to get the app and join the Readers group.

12th Sunday of Ordinary Times

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." MATTHEW 10:32
Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

All three Parishes

On July 1st, our parishes will welcome our new Priest, Father Christon Muhero. He moved here from Malawi, Africa in November of 2021 not knowing what cold or snow really was until he got to live in MN. Today he has a far better understanding of what winter in MN is really like. He was born in December of 1973, and ordained a priest in September 2003.

Fr. Christon's favorite food is Goat Meat.
He loves Soccer and a little Tennis.
He has done a little ice fishing on Lake Bemidji.

Please take time after Mass the weekend of July 1st & 2nd to say hello to Fr. Christon.

May we continue to hold Fr. Andrew Obel in our thoughts and prayers as he takes on the next chapter of his journey at St. Michael's Church, in Mahanomen, MN. and St. Joseph's church in Beaulieu. In addition he will also be the Judicial Vicar of the Diocese of Crookston.
If you happen to drive through the Mahanomen area, look Fr. Andrew up, he would really enjoy your visit.

Thank you to those who have already made a donation toward the sign project. We have raised $20,360. If you did not receive a letter in the mail about the sign, please touch base with Terrie Lynn to update your mailing address.

"Indeed, the Eucharist is God's response to the deepest hunger of the human heart, the hunger for authentic life, for in the Eucharist Christ himself is truly in our midst, to nourish, console and sustain us on our journey."

Pope Francis

Consider spending some time during the week adoring Christ in the Tabernacle.

The Knights of Columbus will be holding an Exemplification for new Members this Saturday, June 24th at St. Mary's, after Mass. The Parish is invited to come and enjoy the ceremony.

Men interested in joining the Warroad Council
Please contact Phil Kotta or Joe Kuznia.
If you are just interested in seeing what we are about, please join us as a guest.

Please Hold in Prayer:

David Cassi, Kevin Scharfenkamp, Clint Gibbons, Harold Forpahl, Larry Sindelir, Nayana Norindr, Ron Wesolowski, Joleen Hartman, Curtis Anderson, Louise Menk, Leila & Nelson Armagon, Theodora Adikini, Mike Hovde, Hilde Barbot, & Lillian Fortier

Be Not Afraid: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Jeremiah 20:10–13

Psalm 69:8–10, 14, 17, 33–35

Romans 5:12–15

Matthew 10:26–33

Our commitment to Christ will be put to the test.

We will hear whispered warnings and denunciations, as Jeremiah does in today's First Reading. Even so-called friends will try to trap and trip us up.

For His sake we will bear insults and be made outcasts—even in our own homes, we hear in today's Psalm.

As Jeremiah tells us, we must expect that God will challenge our faith in Him, and probe our minds and hearts, to test the depths of our love.

"Do not be afraid," Jesus assures us three times in today's Gospel.

Though He may permit us to suffer for our faith, our Father will never forget or abandon us. As Jesus assures us today, everything unfolds in His providence, under His watchful gaze—even the falling of the tiniest sparrow to the ground. Each one of us is precious to Him.

Steadfast in this faith, we must resist the tactics of Satan. He is the enemy who seeks the ruin of our soul in Gehenna, or hell.

We are to seek God, as the Psalmist says. Zeal for the Lord's house, for the heavenly kingdom of the Father, should consume us, as it consumed Jesus (see John 2:17). As Jesus bore the insults of those who blasphemed God, so should we (see Romans 15:3).

By the gracious gift of Himself, Jesus bore the transgressions of the world, Paul tells us in today's Epistle. In rising from the dead, He has shown us that God rescues the life of the poor, that He does not spurn His own when they are in distress.

In His great mercy, He will turn toward us, as well. He will deliver us from the power of the wicked.

That is why we proclaim His name from the housetops, as Jesus tells us. That is why we sing praise and offer thanksgiving in every Eucharist. We are confident in Jesus' promise—that we who declare our faith in Him before others will be remembered before our heavenly Father.

The next phase of the Eucharistic Revival

This past year has been the year of Diocesan Renewal, when clergy and parish leaders have been identified and instructed. June 2023 begins the year of Parish Renewal. Following the National Eucharistic Congress in 2024, we enter the National Year of Mission; the year when we are all called to step out in the call to renew the world. The Catholic News Agency quotes campaign organizers. "those who have been "healed, converted, formed, and unified" by the Eucharist have a mission to teach others "for the life of the world." This is what the National Eucharistic Revival envisions for the future of this movement. (<https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/251579/national-eucharistic-revival-heres-what-you-need-to-know>)

The second phase will foster eucharistic devotion at the parish level, strengthening our liturgical life through eucharistic adoration, missions, resources, preaching, and organic movements of the Holy Spirit. These local efforts will help convert hearts and minds to fall more deeply in love with Jesus Christ, truly present in the Holy Eucharist.
