Sacred Heart Maintenance Fund

We have started a capital campaign to do some much needed repair. The heating system for the church and rectory barely made it through the winter, and the basement windows are in need of replacing. Our goal is $35,000 and through your generosity we are now at 88%! The basement windows are being replaced now. We have just $4,050 to go! If you would like to help us down the home stretch, just write "Maintenance Fund" in the memo of your check and place it in the collection, or mail it to:

GOAL: $35,000

13th Sunday of Ordinary Time

“...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.” Matthew 10:38
Pope Benedict XVI said “The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness”. “Comfort” puts me first. “Picking up your cross and following Jesus” puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!

All three Parishes

Welcome Our New Priest, Father Christon Muhero

Please take time after Mass this weekend to say hello to Fr. Christon.

He moved here from Malawi, Africa in November of 2021 not knowing what cold or snow really was until he got to live in MN. Today he has a far better understanding of what winter in MN is really like. He was born in December of 1973, and ordained a priest in September 2003.

Fr. Christon's favorite food is Goat Meat.

He loves Soccer and a little Tennis.

He has done a little ice fishing on Lake Bemidji.

Thank you to those who have already made a donation toward the sign project. We have raised $22,122. If you did not receive a letter in the mail about the sign, please touch base with Terrie Lynn to update your mailing address.

Thank you to everyone who donated to Fr. Andrew's new laptop and the well project for Uganda. Your support and love is amazing. Fr. Andrew has $2793 from our Parishioners to put towards his Well Project.

Flocknote

We are still working on getting everyone's data updated into Flocknote. You can do this through the App. We will be using this App for our Rel. Ed program this next school year. If you are in need of help installing Flocknote on your phone, please feel free to stop in the office and see Terrie Lynn.

Lawnmowing Volunteers Needed
If you are able to help mow the church lawn at St Mary's and have a mower, it would be greatly appreciated if you sign up to help mow the Church grounds. Sign up sheet in Gathering space.

Please Hold in Prayer:

David Cassi, Kevin Scharfenkamp, Clint Gibbons, Harold Forpahl, Larry Sindelir, Nayana Norindr, Ron Wesolowski, Joleen Hartman, Curtis Anderson, Louise Menk, Leila & Nelson Armagon, Theodora Adikini, Mike Hovde, Hilde Barbot, & Lillian Fortier

To Find Our Lives: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

2 Kgs 4:8–11, 14–16

Ps 89:2–3, 16–19

Rom 6:3–4, 8–11

Mt 10:37–42

The liturgy this week continues to instruct us in the elements of discipleship. We're told that even the most humble among us have a share in the mission Christ gives to His Church.

We're not all called to the ministry of the Apostles or to be prophets like Elisha in today's First Reading. But each of us is called to a holy life (see 2 Timothy 1:9; 1 Thessalonians 4:3).

At Baptism, our lives were joined forever to the Cross of Christ, as Paul tells us in today's Epistle. Baptized into His death, we're to renounce sin and live for God in Christ Jesus.

We are to follow Him, each of us taking up our personal cross, as Jesus says in today's Gospel. That doesn't mean we will all be asked to suffer a martyr's death. But each of us is called to self-denial, to the offering of our lives in service of God's plan.

Jesus must be elevated to first place in our lives—above even our closest bonds of kinship and love. By Baptism, we've been made part of a new family: the kingdom of God, the Church. We are to proclaim that kingdom with our lives, bringing our fathers, our mothers, and all men and women to live as little ones under the fatherhood of God and the kingship of the Holy One.

We do this by opening our hearts and homes to the service of the Lord, following the Shunnamite woman's example in today's First Reading. As Jesus tells us, we're to receive others—not only prophets but also little children, the poor, and the imprisoned—as we receive Christ Himself (see Matthew 18:5; 25:31–46).

As we sing in today's Psalm, we are to testify to His favors and kindness in our lives.

We're to hold fast to the promise—that if we have died with Christ, we shall also live, that if we lose our lives for His sake, we shall find our reward and walk forever in His countenance.
