19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He said, 'Come.' Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus." -Matthew 14:29
When you hear Jesus calling, do you respond immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say "yes" to Jesus, we feel the power of his presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.

All three Parishes

Tuesday is the Assumption of Mary, a holy day of obligation.

Masses are:

5:15pm at St. Mary's

7:15pm at Sacred Heart.

Eucharistic Revival

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at Sacred Heart

Beginning on Sunday, Aug. 27th and continuing on the 4th Sunday of each month, Adoration will be offered. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in the monstrance immediately following Mass until 2:00pm. Please plan to spend time adoring Jesus in the Eucharist. All are invited to stay for whatever amount of time fits your schedule. As always, Father Christon will be available after Mass to celebrate the Sacrament of Confession.

Father Christon will also introduce two minutes of silence after Holy Communion before the prayer after communion.

More will be shared. Please consider following the Eucharistic Revival online by going to www.eucharisticrevival.org

Tell Us Your Story

We are working on creating a book of amazing spiritual stories from those of our parishes.

We know your experiences are real, and to bring that fact home, we're going to compile these stories and share them anonymously in the bulletin and on our Facebook page. Please send your story to terrielynn@stmaryswarroad.org, or put it in an envelope and drop it at the office.

75% of Catholics under the age of 40 do not believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Maybe they're your friends, neighbors, or family members! How can you influence them? Tell them your story...

Year two of the Eucharistic Renewal is aimed at revival at the parish level. Sharing your story may help restore someone's faith, and what better gift could you give?

Scott Hahn Reflects on the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

1 Kings 19:9, 11–13

Psalm 85:9–14

Romans 9:1–5

Matthew 14:22–33

How do we find God in the storms and struggles of our lives, in the trials we encounter in trying to do His will?

God commands Elijah in today's First Reading to stand on the mountain and await His passing by. And in the Gospel, Jesus makes the disciples set out across the waters to meet Him.

In each case, the Lord makes Himself present amid frightening tumult—heavy winds and high waves, fire and earthquakes.

Elijah hides his face. Perhaps he remembers Moses, who met God on the same mountain, also amid fire, thunder, and smoke (see Deuteronomy 4:10–15; Exodus 19:17–19). God told Moses no one could see His face and live, and He sheltered Moses in the hollow of a rock, as He shelters Elijah in a cave (see Exodus 33:18–23).

The disciples, likewise, are too terrified to look on the face of God. Today's Gospel is a revelation of Jesus' divine identity. Only God treads across the crest of the sea (see Job 9:8) and rules the raging waters (see Psalm 89:9–10). And the words of assurance that Jesus speaks—"It is I"—are those God used to identify Himself to Moses (see Exodus 3:14; Isaiah 43:10).

Even Peter is too overcome by fear to imitate his Lord. His fears, Jesus tells him, are a sign of his lack of faith. And so it often is with us. Our fears make us doubt, make it hard to see His glory dwelling in our midst.

Yet, we should know, as we sing in today's Psalm, that His salvation is near to those who hope in Him. By faith we should know, as Paul asserts in today's Epistle, that we are heirs to the promises made to His children, Israel.

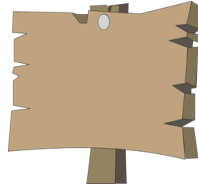

We must trust that He whispers to us in the trials of our lives—that He who has called us to walk along the way of His steps—save us whenever we begin to sink.

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

We need your help in finding a new Parish Council

Please submit the names of one or more parishioners, who you think would make a great Council Member at our Church. Please have names submitted by Aug. 17th. Drop the name(s) in the box on the table in the gathering space or email it to terrielynn@stmarywarroad.org.

We will vote for a new Council Member after Aug. 17th. Watch for updates.

Current members are: Andrew Dignan, Nancy Ellenson, Mary Marvin, Bruce Beisel, & Carl Schaum.

Trustee Members of the Parish Council are: Tom Amiot, & Harold Thiessen

Staff Council Members are: Fr. Christon, Terrie Lynn, & Tammi Moes

Lynn Erickson's term has expired, hence why we need a new member.

Please do not submit the names of current members.

Members meet once every quarter to discuss church matters and weigh in on helping the Priest make big decisions for our Church. So nominate who you believe would be good at looking out for our church parish building and the members of our parish.

St. Mary's Religious Education

We had a Stellar time at our VBS—We had 38 participants and 28 Student and Adult Volunteers who lead the activities and shared the Light of Jesus! Here are a few pictures. Thanks again to everyone who volunteered, donated items, and prayed for our children. We are such a blessed Parish.

We need One More Adult Teacher for 4th Grade —please consider offering your time and talents to help these children continue to learn more about Jesus and our Faith. I will be reaching out and I hope like our Mother, Mary—you answer “Yes” to our call. (co-teaching is an option)

Registration For Religious Education will open up the week of Aug 21st. An information flyer about this year’s program will be in next week’s bulletin. Fees for this year is $50 per child (4th or more child is $25 per). This will allow for each student to receive their own book and will help defray the cost of the Family Meal prepared each Wednesday during class days.

We are excited about the upcoming year with Family Fun Night Events and Youth Masses. Thank you for your support and love to our Religious Education program. See you Sept 13th @ 6pm.
