21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?”-Romans 11:35

St. Paul reminds us of a central fact of stewardship. We cannot give God anything - He already owns it all. God made everything, including us. Since we are made in His image, we too, are called to be generous. How we use our God-given gifts becomes our gift back to Him. Gratitude for all we have been given opens our hearts to joyful generosity!

And, through our generosity, we just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

Sacred Heart Capital Campaign

Because of your generosity, the boilers have been ordered and will soon be installed. Half of the basement windows have been replaced and look great! We still need to replace the rest of the basement windows, and do some repair on the belltower. We are down to the last stretch and only need $2940 to complete our goal. Please prayerfully consider helping us finish this project.

Thank you,

Fr. Christon and Deacon Jim

National Eucharistic Revival @ SH

“Jesus and the Eucharist” a 7 part study will meet the 2nd and 4th Sunday of each month from 4pm-6pm beginning October 22. The bishops of the United States are encouraging all parishes across the country to participate in this National Eucharistic Revival series.

RE News at Sacred Heart

Elementary religious education classes will meet on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month beginning on October 8th from 9:30am-10:15. Ann Ellis will be teaching grades K-3, and Liz Tange will teach grades 4-6. Confirmation classes for grades 8 and up will meet the 2nd and 4th Sundays from 1-2pm beginning October 22nd. Deacon Jim will be the instructor. Parents are encouraged to attend with their children if possible.

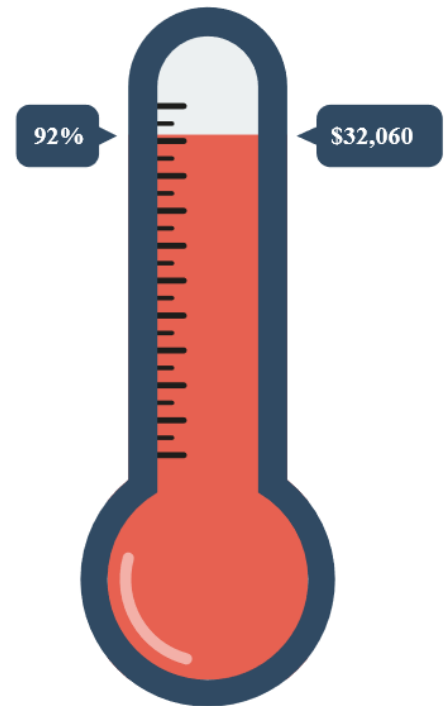

New to the Parish?

If you are new to the area or parish, please register with the office so that we can have contact information for you and be able to welcome you into our community!

Cleaning Volunteers Needed at Sacred Heart

There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board at the back of church for cleaning of the church. This requires about an hour each week. The restrooms, scrubbing, dusting etc. are all taken care of so all that is needed from the volunteers is vacuuming a section of the church.

GOAL: $35,000

‘Oh, the Depths!’: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Isaiah 22:15, 19-23
Psalm 138:1-3, 6, 8
Romans 11:33-36
Matthew 16:13-20

“Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!” Paul exclaims in today’s Epistle. Today’s Psalm, too, takes up the triumphant note of joy and thanksgiving. Why? Because in the Gospel, the heavenly Father reveals the mystery of His kingdom to Peter.

With Peter, we rejoice that Jesus is the anointed Son promised to David, the one prophesied to build God’s temple and reign over an everlasting kingdom (see 2 Samuel 7).

What Jesus calls “my Church” is the kingdom promised to David’s son (see Isaiah 9:1-7). As we hear in today’s First Reading, Isaiah foretold that the keys to David’s kingdom would be given to a new master, who would rule as father to God’s people.

Jesus, the root and offspring of David, alone holds the kingdom’s keys (see Revelation 1:18; 3:7; 22:16). In giving those keys to Peter, Jesus fulfills that prophecy, establishing Peter—and all who succeed him—as holy father of His Church.

His Church, too, is the new house of God, the spiritual temple founded on the “rock” of Peter and built up out of the living stones of individual believers (see 1 Peter 2:5).

Abraham was called “the rock” from which the children of Israel were hewn (see Isaiah 51:1-2). And Peter becomes the rock from which God raises up new children of God (see Matthew 3:9).

The word Jesus uses—“church” (ekklesia in Greek)—was used in the Greek translation of the Old Testament for the “assembly” of God’s children after the Exodus (see Deuteronomy 18:16; 31:30).

His Church is the “assembly of the firstborn” (see Hebrews 12:23; Exodus 4:23-24), established by Jesus’ exodus (see Luke 9:31). Like the Israelites, we are baptized in water, led by the Rock, and fed with spiritual food (see 1 Corinthians 10:1-5).

Gathered at His altar, in the presence of angels, we sing His praise and give thanks to His holy name.

Volunteer help needed

St Mary's is in need of a new volunteer for the Warroad Food Shelf. Kathy Scheving is in need of stepping down from this position. If someone is interested in helping, please contact Scott Halvarson Warroad Food Shelf Director, @ 469-1891.

The next two weeks that St Mary's is up for boxing are Sept. 20th and Sept. 27th

Prayer Quilts Available

Could you, or someone you know, use a prayer quilt? Please contact the PieceMakers Prayer Quilt Ministry by emailing: blkotta@gmail.com. Due to HIPPA laws, verbal permission must be given by the person the quilt goes to. We also need to know what prayers are desired (health, healing, strength, etc.)

Tell Us Your Story

We are working on creating a book of amazing spiritual stories from those of our parishes.

We know your experiences are real, and to bring that fact home, we're going to compile these stories and share them anonymously in the bulletin and on our Facebook page. Please send your story to terrielynn@stmaryswarroad.org, or put it in an envelope and drop it at the office.

75% of Catholics under the age of 40 do not believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Maybe they're your friends, neighbors, or family members! How can you influence them? Tell them your story...

Year two of the Eucharistic Renewal is aimed at revival at the parish level. Sharing your story may help restore someone's faith, and what better gift could you give?

St. Mary's Religious Education

The Diocese is hosting the "Forever Changed" Youth Rally for Middle School and High School students grades 6th – 12th on Sunday Sept 24th from 10am-6pm in Bemidji. An email was sent to those families in 6th—12th grade. Here are the highlights:

The cost is $60 per student/adult (includes two meals)

Registration is due by Sept 17 – Please let me know if your student plans to attend and if you would like to attend as well.

Each participant must register online: www.crookston.org/dcyc

If we have enough to go as a group, we will collect all payment and pay one check.

We will need one adult per 7 students. I do plan to attend at this time.

Attending Adults must complete Safe Environment certification by Sept 18th: www.crookston.org/secertification

Those that were confirmed last year in 12th grade are still welcomed to attend rally.

We are excited for another Faith filled year of Religious Education, and we hope you are too!

Please register online or paper form NLT September 8th; Fee is $50 per student (4th child and more is $25 each) this will afford books for all students and offset costs of material and supplies and Wednesday evening Family meals.

Flocknote

Many of you have not yet installed the Flocknote app and some of you with androids are running into trouble. Have no fear, Terrie Lynn's here.

Stop into my office anytime you see my car out front and I will help you.

We encourage you to get the app. as it will be used at St. Mary's for our RE programs. Teachers will be using it to keep parents updated on classroom activities, assignments and events or any cancellations due to bad weather. We hope it will make registration easier and if paying RE fees online, very easy.

If you do not wish to get the app, that is fine too, you will still get messages, however, you may not be able to see the chain of messages nor who they were sent from, you will not be able to update any of your information and you will not see any of your donation records. Please note: I am still working on entering your previous donations, so please do be patient if you do not see anything yet under your giving.*

To get the app, go to your play-store:

Androids

iPhone

search: Flocknote

It will be this icon for the android

on the iPhone it may be this icon

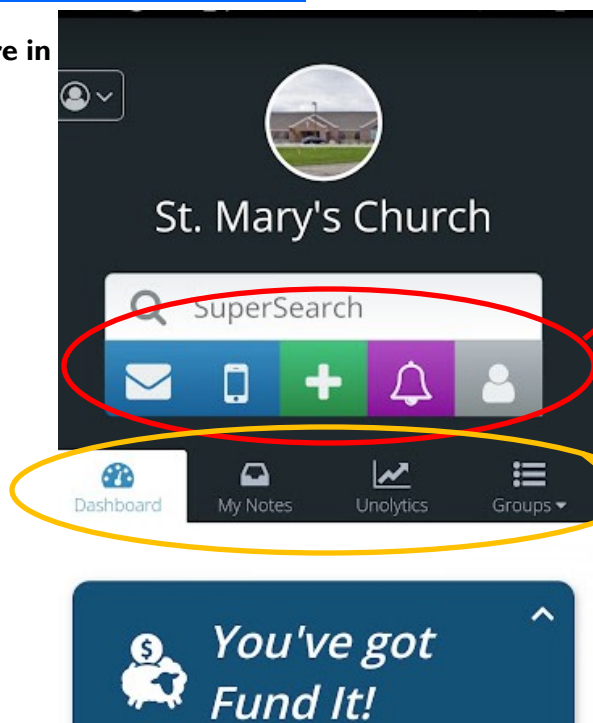

Install the app.

If you would rather work from your laptop or computer, use this link:

<https://StMarysChurch25.flocknote.com>

Once you are in the app

You should see some symbols

Envelope for emailing

Phone for texting

a plus symbol you probably will not have this symbol as this is for admins

Bell for notifications

Person Symbol is for updating your personal information, like your address, phone number, children

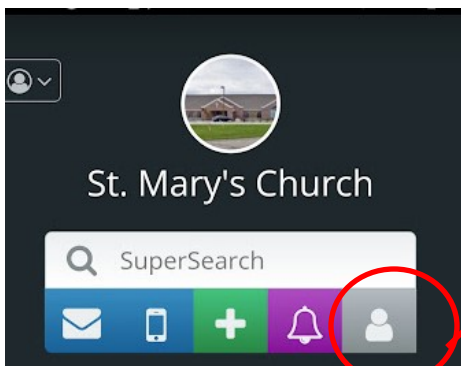

From left to right,

Dashboard, this is where you will see posts (texts and emails) that were sent out. You may also see part of the conversations of other parishioners replying to the message.

My Notes This is the subject of the posts, you can click them and see more details.

Unolytics– If you have this, it will show you details of say the number of people who read the message.

Groups All the groups you can sign up for

Click on your person icon, this will take you to you and your household (if I got that set up for you). If you do not see your household that can be added later. If you do see your household, you can check to make sure you have the correct family members (ha ha) and that I didn't give you someone else's kiddos.

After you click on the person icon, your screen should look like this, but your name rather than mine

News & updates: this will give you the latest activity, similar to the dashboard.

Info (the i symbol): click this to update your email, phone, address, DOB, & other info.

Groups, these are the groups you are currently in and will receive info from.

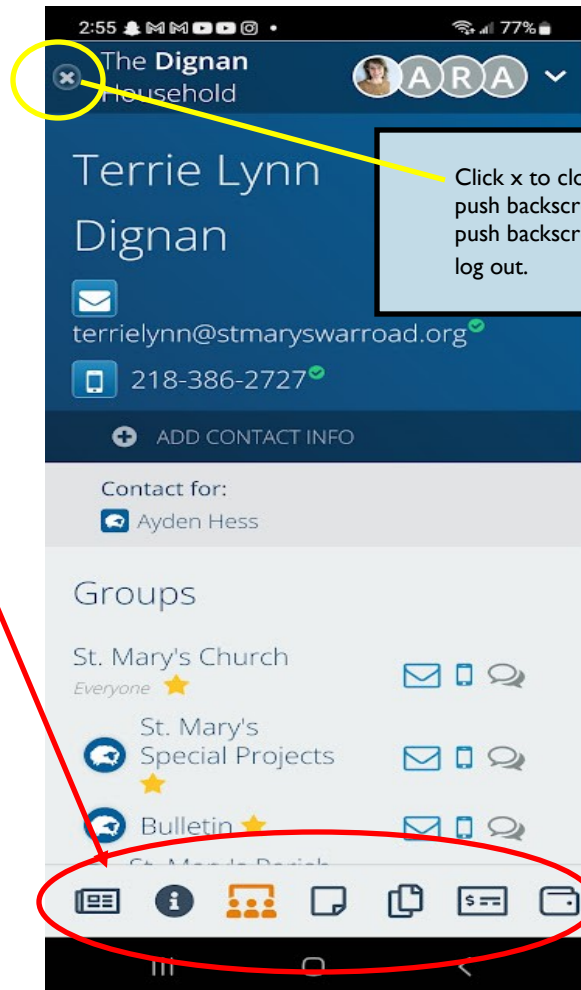

I believe these two icons are for admin use only.

Online Giving, this is where you will find your donations, and can set up recurring donations.

Wallet, this is where you can add your Credit Card Info or your bank account for your donations.

Sacred Heart Parish, Please NOTE: Online giving is only for St. Mary's, if Sacred Heart parishioners use this, their money will go into St. Mary's bank account.

Next week's Bulletin will have more steps of learning the Flocknote app. I do not wish to overwhelm you.

If you need any help, be not afraid to email me or text me, or call.

Thank you.
