Sacred Heart Maintenance Capital Campaign

Thank you to all who have contributed to the maintenance fund. Your generosity is allowing for some much needed repairs. So far, we have raised $31,560 toward our goal of $35,000, which leaves only $3,440 to go. 8 of the 15 windows in the basement have been replaced with the help of volunteers who provided the labor. Many thanks to all of them! We have ordered the boilers in order to lock in the price. We made this decision trusting that the remaining $3,440 will be donated. They will be replaced in late August so we will have a reliable heating system this winter, with the anticipation of substantial savings in operating costs. The remaining 7 windows will be the next project.

The Transfiguration of the Lord

“...then from the cloud came a voice that said, ‘This is my beloved Son, with whom

I am well pleased; listen to him.’” -Matthew 17:5

When Peter, James and John heard this they immediately fell prostrate to the ground and they “were very much afraid. ”We, too, may respond the same way when we hear God’s voice. How many times do you become fearful when invited to participate more fully in the life of the Church? Or, when someone says something negative about the Church, are you afraid to respond? Remember, we too, are beloved sons and daughters of God; Jesus is there to help us, but we need to listen.

Eucharistic Revival

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at Sacred Heart

Beginning on Sunday, Aug. 27th and continuing on the 4th Sunday of each month, Adoration will be offered. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in the monstrance immediately following Mass until 2:00pm. Please plan to spend time adoring Jesus in the Eucharist. All are invited to stay for whatever amount of time fits your schedule. As always, Father Christon will be available after Mass to celebrate the Sacrament of Confession.

Father Christon will also introduce two minute of silence after Holy Communion before the prayer after communion. More will be shared. Please consider following the Eucharistic Revival online by going to www.eucharisticrevival.org

Tell Us Your Story

We are working on creating a book of amazing spiritual stories from those of our parishes.

We know your experiences are real, and to bring that fact home, we're going to compile these stories and share them anonymously in the bulletin and on our Facebook page. Please send your story to terrielynn@stmaryswarroad.org, or put it in an envelope and drop it at the office.

75% of Catholics under the age of 40 do not believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Maybe they're your friends, neighbors, or family members! How can you influence them? Tell them your story...

Year two of the Eucharistic Renewal is aimed at revival at the parish level. Sharing your story may help restore someone's faith, and what better gift could you give?

Majestic Voice: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord

Readings:

Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14

Psalms 97:1-2, 5-6, 9

2 Peter 1:16-19

Matthew 17:1-9

High on the holy mountain in today's Gospel, the true identity of Jesus is fully revealed in His transfiguration.

Standing between Moses and the prophet Elijah, Jesus is the bridge that joins the Law of Moses to the prophets and psalms (see Luke 24:24-27). As Moses did, Jesus climbs a mountain with three named friends and beholds God's glory in a cloud (see Exodus 24:1, 9, 15). As Elijah did, He hears God's voice on the mountain (see 1 Kings 19:8-19).

Elijah was prophesied to return as the herald of the Messiah and the Lord's new covenant (see Malachi 3:1, 23-24). Jesus is revealed today as that Messiah. By His death and resurrection, which He intimates today to the Apostles, He makes a new covenant with all creation.

The majestic voice declares Jesus to be God's own beloved Son, in whom the Father is well pleased (see Psalm 2:7). God here gives us a glimpse of His inner life. In the cloud of the Holy Spirit, the Father reveals His love for the Son, and invites us to share in that love as His beloved sons and daughters.

Shadowed by the clouds of heaven, His clothes dazzling white, Jesus is the Son of Man whom Daniel foresees being enthroned in today's First Reading.

He is the king, the Lord of all the earth, as we sing in today's Psalm. But is He truly the Lord of our hearts and minds? The last word God speaks from heaven today is a command—"Listen to Him" (see Deuteronomy 18:15-19). The Word of the Lord should be like a lamp shining in the darkness of our days, as Peter tells us in today's Second Reading. How well are we listening? Do we attend to His word each day?

Let us today rededicate ourselves to listening. Let us hear Him as the word of life, the bright morning star of divine life waiting to arise in our hearts (see Revelation 2:28; 22:16).

“Listen to Jesus and follow him. That’s the message of the Transfiguration.”
— Pope Francis

We need your help in finding a new Parish Council

Please submit the names of one or more parishioners, who you think would make a great Council Member at our Church. Please have names submitted by Aug. 17th. Drop the name(s) in the box on the table in the gathering space or email it to terrielynn@stmarywarroad.org.

We will vote for a new Council Member after Aug. 17th. Watch for updates.

Current members are: Andrew Dignan, Nancy Ellenson, Mary Marvin, Bruce Beisel, & Carl Schaum.

Trustee Members of the Parish Council are: Tom Amiot, & Harold Thiessen

Staff Council Members are: Fr. Christon, Terrie Lynn, & Tammi Moes

Lynn Erickson's term has expired, hence why we need a new member.

Please do not submit the names of current members.

Members meet once every quarter to discuss church matters and weigh in on helping the Priest make big decisions for our Church. So nominate who you believe would be good at looking out for our church parish building and the members of our parish.
