23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel...”-Ezekiel 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, many of us are not generous in proportion to the gifts we have been given. How often do we give at the minimum level required? Remember, the Lord calls us to nurture and develop our gifts and to give back with increase. He calls us to be generous with all the gifts, especially the one that means the most to us.

Prayer Quilts Available

Could you, or someone you know, use a prayer quilt? Please contact the PieceMakers Prayer Quilt Ministry by emailing: blkotta@gmail.com. Due to HIPPA laws, verbal permission must be given by the person the quilt goes to. We also need to know what prayers are desired (health, healing, strength, etc.)

Cleaning Volunteers Needed at Sacred Heart

There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board at the back of church for cleaning of the church. This requires about an hour each week. The restrooms, scrubbing, dusting etc. are all taken care of so all that is needed from the volunteers is vacuuming a section of the church.

To Win Them Back: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Ezekiel 33:7–9
Psalm 95:1–2, 6–9
Romans 13:8–10
Matthew 18:15–20

As Ezekiel is appointed watchman over the house of Israel in today's first Reading, so Jesus in the Gospel today establishes His disciples as guardians of the new Israel of God, the Church (see Galatians 6:16).

He also puts in place procedures for dealing with sin and breaches of the faith, building on rules of discipline prescribed by Moses for Israel (see Leviticus 19:17–20; Deuteronomy 19:13). The heads of the new Israel, however, receive extraordinary powers—similar to those given to Peter (see Matthew 16:19). They have the power to bind and loose, to forgive sins and to reconcile sinners in His name (see John 20:21–23).

But the powers He gives the Apostles and their successors depend on their communion with Him. As Ezekiel is only to teach what he hears God saying, so the disciples are to gather in His name and to pray and seek the will of our heavenly Father.

But today's readings are more than a lesson in Church order. They also suggest how we're to deal with those who trespass against us, a theme that we'll hear in next week's readings as well.

Notice that both the Gospel and the First Reading presume that believers have a duty to correct sinners in our midst.

Ezekiel is even told that he will be held accountable for their souls if he fails to speak out and try to correct them.

This is the love that Paul in today's Epistle says we owe to our neighbors. To love our neighbors as ourselves is to be vitally concerned for their salvation. We must make every effort, as Jesus says, to win our brothers and sisters back, to turn them from the false paths.

We should never correct out of anger or a desire to punish. Instead, our message must be that of today's Psalm—urging the sinner to hear God's voice, not to harden their hearts, and to remember that He is the one who made us, the rock of our salvation.

HELP THE POOR

We would like to say thank you to the individuals of our Parish, who have silently been dropping donations for the "Needy" in our baskets. Over the past two weeks we have had a few families stop in asking for help.

We have one family that is currently homeless with a newborn baby. We are doing our best in helping this family, but our church's "for the Needy" funds are very limited. Both parents had recently moved to Roseau in hopes to better their lives and the lives of their children who are still back in Texas. However, due to unanticipated circumstances they both lost their jobs in Roseau. The Husband just started working for Marvin Windows. They are struggling finding anywhere to live with the little financial resources they have and the little help that has been given. Winter is right around the corner, and they worry about having to live out of their car with their newborn baby.

If you wish to help this family, it would be such a beautiful blessing.

I made a link available if you wish to do it online, otherwise just drop a check or cash donation clearly labeled for the family in need.
