3rd Sunday of Lent

“You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything...” - Exodus 20:4

How many “gods” do you put before God? “Idols” do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health. Pray for God’s help to prune our vices and to grow in virtue.

For Lent For Life ~ Catholic Relief Services' Rice Bowl

We will journey to Uganda, El Salvador and Indonesia to learn how issues like hunger impact our global family. Along the way we will reflect on how the Eucharist—the Bread of Life—compels us to share bread for life with all members of our human family. Please take a Rice Bowl to collect your Lenten donation to support families around the world. You can donate direct to CRS or bring to St Mary's to donate on your behalf. Return by Easter. Thank you.

Confessions at Sacred Heart on March 8th 3– 5pm

Preparing for Mass

Nothing will transform your experience of the Eucharist like harnessing the power of anticipation. More than 50% of the joy in any great venture in life comes from anticipation. When you plan a great vacation, get ready for a first date, prepare for the birth of your child, so much of the joy comes before you ever even have the experience.

One of the greatest temptations around the Eucharist is to treat it like a regular part of our routine instead of the most significant moment of our week. And the way to move beyond that spiritual obstacle is to begin to build anticipation. Throughout the week, prepare for Mass by praying the Spiritual Communion each day, by reflecting on the Gospel for the coming Sunday's Mass, by fasting in order to intentionally become mindful of the hunger in your soul, and by arriving a few minutes early to quiet your heart, mind, body, and soul before Mass begins.

We prepare for everything we consider to be important in this life. Preparation builds anticipation. And anticipation fills our souls with joy. When we don't prepare for Mass, we reveal our misplaced priorities and rob ourselves of so much of the joy God wants to give us through the Eucharistic experience.
