Opportunities to learn more about how to share your faith with others!

As we move closer to our year of evangelization in the Eucharistic Revival process, it is crucial for us all to learn effective methods to share our faith with those around us. There are great resources that will help us along the way. I would encourage everyone to take a few minutes each day to watch one of the videos available at the following links:
<https://watch.formed.org/evangelization-with-chris-stefanick>
<https://watch.formed.org/missionary-discipleship-with-julianne-stanz>
All of these videos are concise, and will vary from just a couple minutes, to 15 minutes in length and will empower you to share the gift of faith with confidence.

“I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

When Jesus was about to ascend into heaven, He stood before His disciples and made an extraordinary promise: “I am with you always, to the end of the age.” At the heart of the Catholic faith is an unwavering belief that Jesus fulfills this promise through the Eucharist. Not only does He remain with us in spirit, He stays with us physically by giving us His Body and Blood in the Blessed Sacrament. The beauty of Catholic churches throughout the world is a testimony to this faith. Right now, even as you read this, somewhere in the world, Mass is being celebrated and Jesus is once again making good on His promise.

Jesus chooses to be with us -body and spirit- in every Tabernacle and on every altar in every Catholic church in the world. He promised to be with us until the end of the world, and He will never break that promise. The only question left is: Will we choose to be with Him?

Excerpts above are from the book: 33 days to Eucharistic Glory which is available on audible.
