13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality.” 2 CORINTHIANS 8:14
One of the tenants of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture, and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the “Body of Christ.” We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation

"How Do I Share My Faith?"

We are approaching the end of the parish year of Eucharistic Revival, where we enriched our own spirituality through more frequent Adoration of Jesus in the Eucharist, gained a better understanding of our faith through the "Jesus and the Eucharist" video series, and experienced God's mercy through more frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance.

We are now entering the third year of Revival, where we are being sent to "Invite One Back". You may ask "How do I share my faith?" Formed.org can give you the tools to do just that.

1. Sign up for free at formed.org/signup.
2. In 'find your parish', type 'Warroad' and select 'St. Mary's'.
3. Type in your name and email, then click 'sign up'.

Among many excellent Catholic videos, search for "Evangelization with Chris Stefanick" and "Missionary Discipleship with Julianne Stanz". Please ask for help if you need help accessing this website! Both videos have "easy to learn tools" for becoming comfortable sharing your faith and helping others to realize why you cherish the Church Jesus Christ gave us 2000 years ago.

May our own relationship with Jesus be so apparent that others will seek what we have!

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

The Beginning of the Northern Pilgrimage to the National Eucharistic Congress!

Bishop Andrew Cozzens gave the homily at the Mass near Itasca State Park on Pentecost Sunday.

In his homily, Bishop Cozzens, who chairs the board of the National Eucharistic Congress Inc., which is responsible for overseeing the congress in Indianapolis, said that a nationwide Eucharistic revival must begin in Catholics' hearts.

He encouraged Massgoers to receive the Eucharist worthily through frequent confession, ideally monthly.

"That's when the power of the Holy Spirit will be able to inhabit our hearts," he said. "All of us need repentance."

He encouraged the faithful, no matter their place on their journey, not to become complacent or settle for "a lukewarm spiritual life," believing that they have "reached their limit on holiness."

"There is no limit for holiness in your heart," he said. "The more you surrender to him (Jesus), the more he will work in you. What happens if the Holy Spirit actually begins to take over? What happens is you begin to love to pray. God's word comes to life, and you actually go there to seek practical answers for your questions. What happens is that you begin to be so in love with Jesus that you can't help but share him with others, because you just talk about what you love. What happens is that you begin to form friendships and small communities of people who support you, who are like-minded, who also want to see the Holy Spirit spread across the country."
