8th Sunday of Ordinary Time

“A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit.” - LUKE 6:43
Are you using your gifts in the way God intended? Have you asked God how He would like you to use them? Do you compare yourself to others and complain about what you don't have instead of being thankful for what you do have? God gives each of us unique gifts and a unique plan. Listen to how God is calling you to use your gifts, to bear good fruit, for the glory of His name.

St. Mary's Parishioners, for your year-end tax donations, please visit your Flocknote account under “Giving” to find your 2024 donations. If you have trouble, touch base with Terrie Lynn for a copy.

The Grace of a Retreat

In the Catholic faith, the "grace" of a retreat refers to the experience of receiving God's unmerited favor and spiritual renewal through dedicated time spent in prayer, reflection, and solitude, allowing for a deeper connection with God and a renewed sense of purpose in one's life, often achieved through dedicated time away from daily distractions to focus on one's faith; essentially, a retreat provides a space to actively receive God's grace and deepen one's relationship with Him.

Key points about the "grace of a Catholic retreat":

Spiritual renewal:

A retreat offers a chance to step back from daily life and focus on personal spiritual growth, allowing for a deeper understanding of one's faith.

Time for reflection:

The quiet space of a retreat enables individuals to examine their lives, thoughts, and actions in light of their faith.

Sacraments and prayer:

Regular participation in sacraments like the Eucharist, along with dedicated prayer time, are central elements of a Catholic retreat, serving as a means to receive grace.

Guidance from a spiritual leader:

Retreats often include talks or presentations by a priest or spiritual director to guide reflection and provide insights into the faith.

• Community experience:

While some retreats are solitary, others offer the opportunity to connect with other individuals on a spiritual level, fostering a sense of community and shared faith journey.
