"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." - Joshua 5:12 Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

Happy Birthday wishes!

A Life of Prayer

Prayer is the place where we live this ongoing relationship with God, and it is essential to authentic discipleship. Every day, each of us needs time to set everything aside, enter into silence, and focus our hearts directly on God. We need to open our hearts to his word and to his Holy Spirit so his truth and love can transform them.

If we do not do this, then we will not be led by him.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church makes this clear:

"Prayer is a vital necessity. Proof to the contrary is no less convincing: if we do not allow the spirit to lead us, we fall back into the slavery of sin. How can the Holy Spirit be our life if our heart is far from him?"

If we never spend time alone with him in prayer, our hearts will be far from him.

In our time of personal prayer, we are gradually able to discern his voice speaking to us. We begin to experience how much he loves us. We come to see that he is with us in our sufferings. We learn to surrender to him our difficulties. This is the place where we learn to live his commandment to forgive, to love our enemies. It is the place where we are called to generosity and where he reveals how he wants us to give ourselves. The grace we receive in the sacraments comes alive in prayer and we are able to follow and serve him.

Without prayer, we cannot live as authentic disciples. Without this daily encounter with Jesus Christ, with his truth and his love, we will not grow to become like him. Without daily prayer, we will never overcome our deeper sins and struggles. The encounter with God's love and truth must not remain an event in the past but must be something we seek every day.
