17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” Luke 11:9
Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Gratitude and generosity are gifts that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

In search of a person(s) to manage the Wednesday Night Faith Formation (FF) Food Ministry. This would include creating the menu to accommodate the FF meal schedule; buy the food necessary to make meals (FF budget avg is $100 per meal); make the meal for 80-100 students & family members. You will have help w/serving & clean-up. See Tammi if interested.

Warroad St. Mary's Cemetery is in need of help mowing

If you can volunteer your time in helping mow the cemetery would be very much appreciated. Students looking for Community service hours, please do consider. Thank you, Mike Thiele 218-280-3450

Malawi Borehole

We have an unbelievable advantage!! Our Holy Father ( Pope Leo XIV ) has asked us to build bridges, and not ignore the marginalized people of the world. We have a direct hand to mouth opportunity to place our gifts of hope in the hands of our own very trustworthy Fr. Christon. It's hard for me to imagine being more marginalized than living in a rural environment in the third poorest country in the world, not having the basic need of clean drinking water!! Please don't miss this opportunity!

Last Christmas our 9 year old grandson was given 25 dollars to give to the poor, he wanted to give it to Fr. Christon. He asked me if he would be able to see pictures when the kids get water. Yes there will be pictures, Fr. Christon will be there when the project is completed.

“A rice is nice meal,” will be served Sunday August 3rd at 5:00 pm.

We are fundraising for a bore hole in Malawi. Fr. Christon believes it can be done for close to $5,000. The fundraising effort will run through the month of July concluding with a meal. Donations will be accepted anytime during the month of July, footnote, “Malawi Borehole” & can be dropped off at the office or mail to:

St. Mary's Catholic Church P.O. Box 33
Warroad, MN 56763

Please look for more information in the bulletin during the month of July
If anyone has used cell phones laying around they would be greatly appreciated by people in Malawi.

Thank you, Tom Amiot

Attention all Cursillista's! Now is the time to be praying about who you are going to ask to make the fall weekend Sept 25-28 for women and Oct 23-26 for men. Pray that God puts a name on your heart of someone you know who would find making a Cursillo a milestone in their faith life. Is there someone you have noticed that God is working on and seems to be searching for more in their relationship with Jesus? Remember, Christ is counting on you! Registration forms are available at online at www.crookstoncursillo.weebly.com.

Reminder of Cell Phones: If you have an old cell phone(s) you no longer use, please consider donating them for those in Malawi unable to afford one. Simply, drop them in the box right outside the church office

The Holy Hour

Fulton Sheen deserves credit as the great prophet of the Holy Hour- a sustained, uninterrupted hour of prayer in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Sheen was a revered retreat director, especially for priests, and he closed every one of these spiritual exercises with the same practical recommendation: spend a Holy Hour. Many of Sheen's colleagues confirmed that, his whole life long, he remained faithful to this practice. I can personally testify that this teaching, which had been largely forgotten for a generation after his death, has been massively embraced by younger Catholics. The Holy Hour is now a staple spiritual discipline in most seminaries and in an increasing number of rectories and parishes around the country. The Holy Hour has also become a key part of my own spiritual life. When I'm home, I begin every day going to my chapel and spending an hour in prayer. That is because of Fulton J. Sheen.

What Sheen was intuiting about the importance of the Holy Hour is that it is about cultivating our relationship with Jesus. He once wrote, "Even when it seemed so unprofitable and lacking in spiritual intimacy, I still had the sensation of being at least like a dog at the master's door, ready in case he called me." He was deeply sympathetic with the description of prayer in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament once offered by a parishioner of the Cure of Ars: "I look at him and he looks at me." The Christian life is not about studying or drawing inspiration from a figure from the distant past; rather, it is about being in a personal relationship with Christ. This is realized, very powerfully, in the Holy Hour.

Once when he was asked what one is supposed to do exactly in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, Sheen answered: in a way, anything you want! There is no official, formalized way to spend the Holy Hour. You can pray the liturgy of the hours or the rosary; you can read scripture or spiritual works; you can prepare for teaching or preaching; you can thank God for the blessings in your life; you can bring the petitions of all the people who have asked for your prayer; you can bring a pad of paper and a pencil, ready to write down the ideas and the inspirations that come. You can even just sit in front of the Blessed Sacrament and do nothing at all, simply basking in his presence and undergoing a kind of "radiation therapy."

Whatever you do during the Holy Hour, the most important thing is to commit to it. Maybe you are new to the Holy Hour and need to start small or start slow. If you're a morning person like me, do this prayer right after you wake up; if you're better in the evening, do it before you go to bed. But take the time.

Stay close to Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The Master is waiting for us; let us watch an hour with him and listen for his call.
